dated as of January 4, 1995
between

APACHE CORPORATION

and

CHEMICAL BANK,
as Fiscal Agent

FISCAL AGENCY AGREEMENT ("Agreement"), dated as of January 4, 1995, between APACHE CORPORATION, a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the State of Delaware (the "Company"), and CHEMICAL BANK, a banking corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the United States (the "Fiscal Agent").

1. The Securities. The Company by a Subscription Agreement, dated December 6, 1994 (the "Subscription Agreement"), among the Company and the Managers (as defined therein), agreed to issue up to U.S. $172,500,000, aggregate principal amount of its 6% Convertible Subordinated Debentures due 2002 (hereinafter referred to as the "Securities"). Interest on the Securities shall be calculated on the basis of a 360-day year comprised of twelve 30-day months. Except as set forth in the next sentence, the Securities will initially be issued in temporary form, and will subsequently be exchanged for Securities in definitive form either as bearer Securities ("Bearer Securities"), in denominations of U.S. $1,000 and U.S. $10,000 and with interest coupons attached, representing the semiannual interest payable thereon, or as fully registered Securities ("Registered Securities," which term shall include, where the context so requires, the Restricted Securities as hereinafter defined), in denominations of U.S. $1,000 and integral multiples thereof. In addition, Securities may be sold on behalf of the Company by the Managers (or their affiliates) to qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the United States Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act") or to accredited investors pursuant to Regulation D under the Securities Act in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the Subscription Agreement (the "Restricted Securities," which may be in a global or typewritten form and later exchanged for a printed Security of an equivalent amount, and which, for all purposes hereunder shall be a Definitive Security (as defined herein) in the form of a Registered Security). The Securities in definitive form shall be substantially in the form of Exhibit A hereto (the "Definitive Securities"). The Securities will be convertible as provided in Section 4 of the Definitive Securities and Section 7 hereof. The Securities may be redeemed by the Company as provided in Section 3 of the Definitive Securities and Section 6 hereof. The Securities will be subordinated as provided in Section 7 of the Definitive Securities. The temporary global debenture in respect of the Securities will be issued in bearer form without coupons in the aggregate principal amount of the entire issue of Securities (less the aggregate principal amount of the Restricted Securities concurrently issued), substantially in the form of Exhibit B hereto (the "Global Security"). The Definitive Securities and the Global Security shall contain such appropriate insertions, omissions, substitutions and other variations as are required or permitted by this Agreement and may have such letters, numbers or other marks of identification and such legends or endorsements placed thereon as may, consistent herewith, be determined by the officer of the Company executing such Securities, as evidenced by his execution of such Securities.

(d) The Company shall cause to be kept at the principal corporate trust office of the Fiscal Agent a register (the registers maintained in such office and in any other office or agency designated for such purpose (which office shall be located outside of the United Kingdom) being herein sometimes collectively referred to as the "Security Register") in which, subject to such reasonable regulations as the Company may prescribe, the Company shall provide for the registration of Registered Securities and of transfers of Registered Securities. The Fiscal Agent is hereby appointed "Security Registrar" for the purpose of registering Registered Securities and transfers of Registered Securities as herein provided.

3. Registration and Transfer.

(a) Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Registered Security at any office or agency designated for such purpose by the Company pursuant to Section 12(g) hereof, the Company shall execute, and the Fiscal Agent shall authenticate and register and make available for delivery, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more new Registered Securities of any authorized denominations and of a like aggregate principal amount; provided, however, that prior to the date which is three years after the Closing Date (as defined in the Definitive Securities) (the "Transfer Restriction Date"), the Fiscal Agent shall not register the transfer of any Restricted Security unless:

(i) Either (x) the registered holder presenting such Restricted Security for transfer, or its agent, shall have advised the Fiscal Agent in writing that such registered holder intends to rely or is relying on the exemption from the registration and resale provisions of the Securities Act provided by Rule 144A thereunder (or a successor provision) in making such transfer or (y) the person presenting such Restricted Security for transfer (if other than the registered holder or its agent), or its agent, shall have advised the Fiscal Agent in writing that the person in whose name the Restricted Security is to be registered upon transfer (or, in the case of a transfer to a nominee, each beneficial owner of such Restricted Security) is a "qualified institutional buyer" (as defined in Rule 144A) (a "QIB") and that such person has been advised that the Restricted Security has been sold or transferred to it in reliance upon Rule 144A; or

(ii) Either (x) the registered holder presenting such Restricted Security for transfer, or its agent, shall have advised the Fiscal Agent in writing that the registered holder intends to rely on or is relying on the exemption from the registration provisions of the Securities Act provided by Regulation S thereunder and the address of the person in whose name the registered holder, or its agent, has requested the Restricted Security to be registered upon transfer is an address outside of the United States (as defined in Regulation S) or (y) the person presenting such Restricted Security for transfer (if other than the registered holder or its agent), or its agent, shall have advised the Fiscal Agent in writing that the person in whose name the Restricted Security is to be registered upon transfer (or, in the case of a transfer to a nominee, each beneficial owner of such Restricted Security), has been advised that the Restricted Security has been sold or transferred to it in reliance upon the exemption from the registration provisions of the Securities Act provided by Regulation S and the address of the person in whose name the Restricted Security is to be registered in the Security Register upon transfer is an address outside the United States (as defined in Regulation S); or

(iii) A broker or dealer registered under Section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 shall have advised the Fiscal Agent in writing that (x) each person who will become a beneficial owner of the Restricted Security upon transfer is a sophisticated institutional investor which is an "accredited investor" as such term is defined in Regulation D under the Securities Act, (y) no general solicitation or advertising was made or used by such broker or dealer in connection with the offer and sale of such Restricted Security to such person(s) and (z) such institutional investor has been informed that the Securities have not been registered under the Securities Act and are subject to the restrictions on transfer set forth in the Securities and this Agreement and such advice is accompanied by a written opinion of U.S. counsel acceptable in form and substance to the Company that the transfer is being made pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and the Company provides written confirmation to the Fiscal Agent that such opinion is in form and substance acceptable to the Company; or

(iv) The Fiscal Agent has received transfer documentation indicating, and a written opinion of U.S. counsel acceptable in form and substance to the Company confirming, that the transfer is being made pursuant to an exemption from, or a transaction not otherwise subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act, and the Company provides written confirmation to the Fiscal Agent that such opinion is in form and substance acceptable to the Company.

For purposes of this Section 3(a), any such advice to the Fiscal Agent in writing may be in the form of a letter, notice or other written document or, with respect to Section 3(a)(i) and (ii) above, by appropriate notation on the transfer notice set forth on such Security.

(b) Bearer Securities may, at the option of the holder thereof, be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of Registered Securities in denominations of $1,000 and integral multiples thereof without coupons and/or Bearer Securities of authorized denominations, upon surrender of the Bearer Securities to be exchanged at any office or agency designated for such purpose by the Company pursuant to Section 12(g), with all unmatured coupons and all matured coupons in default thereto appertaining. If such holder is unable to produce any such unmatured coupon or coupons or matured coupon or coupons, in default, such exchange may be effected if the Bearer Securities are accompanied by payment in an amount equal to the face amount of such missing coupon or coupons, or the surrender of such missing coupon or coupons may be waived by the Company if there be furnished to it such security or indemnity as it may require to save it, the Fiscal Agent, the Paying Agent and any paying agency harmless. If thereafter the holder of such Security shall surrender to any paying agency any such missing coupon in respect of which such a payment shall have been made, such holder shall be entitled to receive the amount of such payment.

Registered Securities may, at the option of the holder thereof, be exchanged for Registered Securities of any other authorized denominations and of a like aggregate principal amount, upon surrender of the Securities to be exchanged at any office or agency designated for such purpose by the Company pursuant to Section 12(g). Registered Securities shall not be exchangeable for Bearer Securities. Whenever any Securities are so surrendered for exchange, the Company shall execute, and the Fiscal Agent shall authenticate and deliver, the Registered Securities which the holder making the exchange is entitled to receive.

(c) All Securities issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Securities shall be the valid obligations of the Company, evidencing the same obligations, and entitled to the same benefits under this Agreement, as the Securities surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.

(d) Every Registered Security presented for registration of transfer or surrendered for exchange shall be duly endorsed, or be accompanied by a written instrument of transfer in form satisfactory to the Company, the Fiscal Agent and the Transfer Agent to which such Security is presented or surrendered and the Security Registrar, duly executed by the holder thereof or his attorney duly authorized in writing. In the case of Registered Securities, all such instruments shall comply with the provisions of Section 3(a) above. The registration of the transfer of a Registered Security by the Security Registrar shall be deemed to be the written acknowledgment of such transfer on behalf of the Company.

(e) No service charge shall be made for any exchange or registration of transfer, but the Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in connection with any exchange or registration of transfer of Securities, other than exchanges pursuant to Section 4 hereof or not involving any registration of transfer.

(f) Neither the Company nor the Fiscal Agent nor any of the offices or agencies designated for the purposes specified in Section 12(f) nor any Transfer Agent shall be required (i) to exchange Bearer Securities for Registered Securities during the period between the close of business on the Record Date (as defined in Section 5(c) hereof) and the opening of business on the next succeeding interest payment date, (ii) to exchange any Bearer Security (or portion thereof) for a Registered Security if the Company shall determine that, as a result thereof, it may incur adverse consequences under the Federal income tax laws and regulations (including proposed regulations) of the United States in effect or proposed at the time of such exchange, or (iii) in the event of a redemption in part, (A) to register the transfer of Registered Securities or to exchange any Bearer Securities for Registered Securities during a period of 15 days immediately preceding the date notice is given identifying the serial numbers of the Securities to be redeemed, or (B) to register the transfer of or exchange any Registered Security so selected for redemption in whole or in part, except portions not being redeemed of Securities being redeemed in part, or (C) to exchange any Bearer Security called for redemption; provided, however, that a Bearer Security called for redemption may be exchanged, on the terms and conditions set forth above, for a Registered Security that is simultaneously surrendered, with written instruction for payment on the date fixed for redemption, unless the redemption date is between the close of business on any Record Date and the close of business on the next succeeding interest payment date, in which case such exchange may only be made prior to the Record Date immediately preceding the redemption date.

(g) The Company agrees to cause each original purchaser of Restricted Securities to be advised that, notwithstanding that such Securities are eligible for book-entry delivery through a central securities repository (a "Repository"), transfer of Restricted Securities prior to the Transfer Restriction Date otherwise than to a QIB shall be made by surrender for registration of transfer of such Restricted Securities to any office or agency designated for such purpose by the Company pursuant to Section 12(g) hereof.

4. Global Security; Exchange.

(a) The Securities (other than the Restricted Securities) shall initially be in the form of the Global Security. The Global Security and the Restricted Securities shall be authenticated by the Fiscal Agent upon the order of the Company on the same conditions, in substantially the same manner and with the same effect as the Definitive Securities. The Global Security and the Restricted Securities will be issued upon payment to the Company or its order in United States dollars in next-day funds cleared through the New York Clearing House Interbank Payments System. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company requests not later than seven days prior to the Closing Date that payment be made in same-day funds, payment shall be made by wire transfer in same-day funds; provided, however, that the Company shall reimburse the Managers for the cost of obtaining such same-day funds, which reimbursements may be taken out of the proceeds of the offering. Payment shall be made at 3:00 p.m., London time, on January 4, 1995, or at such other time on the same or such other date, not later than 5:00 p.m., London time, on the fifth business day in London thereafter, as the Managers and the Company may agree. Such payment will be made (1) upon authorization from the Managers, (2) against delivery of the amount, if any, of Restricted Securities, as the Managers may request and as they shall direct, and (3) against delivery of the Global Security for the balance of the Securities to The Chase Manhattan Bank, N.A., London office, as depositary (the "Common Depositary") for The Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, Brussels office, as operator of the Euroclear System (the "Euroclear Operator"), and Cedel, societe anonyme ("Cedel"). The Global Security shall be held on deposit with the Common Depositary for the accounts of the Euroclear Operator and Cedel, for credit to the Managers' respective Securities Clearance Accounts (or to such other accounts as the Managers may have specified) with the Euroclear Operator or Cedel.

(b) Contemporaneously herewith, the Company shall execute and deliver to the Fiscal Agent at its principal corporate trust office in New York Definitive Securities (which may be in typewritten form) in respect of the Restricted Securities. Without unnecessary delay but in any event not less than 15 days prior to the Exchange Date (as defined below), the Company will execute and deliver to the Fiscal Agent at its office in London Definitive Securities in the aggregate principal amount outstanding in the Global Security. "Exchange Date" means the date following the expiration of the 40-day period commencing on the Closing Date. At the request of a holder of Restricted Securities, the Fiscal Agent shall deliver to such holder of Restricted Securities printed Definitive Securities in exchange for an equal aggregate principal amount of nonprinted Restricted Securities. On or after the Exchange Date, the Global Security may be surrendered to the Fiscal Agent to be exchanged, as a whole or in part, for Definitive Bearer Securities without charge, and the Fiscal Agent shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange for such Global Security or the portions thereof to be exchanged, an equal aggregate principal amount of Definitive Bearer Securities, but only upon presentation to the Fiscal Agent at its office in London of a certificate of the Euroclear Operator or Cedel with respect to the Global Security or portions thereof being exchanged, substantially in the form of Exhibit C hereto, to the effect that it has received a certificate or certificates in substantially the form set forth in Exhibit D hereto dated no earlier than 15 days prior to the Exchange Date and signed by the person appearing in its records as the owner of the Global Security or portions thereof being exchanged. Similarly, after the Exchange Date, portions of the Global Security may be exchanged for an equal aggregate principal amount of Definitive Registered Securities upon presentation to the Fiscal Agent at its office in London of a certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit E hereto.

(c) Only Bearer Securities may be issued upon receipt by the Euroclear Operator or Cedel of a certificate or certificates in the form of Exhibit D hereto. Bearer Securities will be delivered only outside the United States, its territories or possessions. Only Registered Securities may be issued upon receipt by the Euroclear Operator or Cedel of a certificate or certificates in the form of Exhibit E hereto.

(d) The delivery to the Fiscal Agent by the Euroclear Operator or Cedel of any certificate referred to above may be relied upon by the Company and the Fiscal Agent as conclusive evidence that a corresponding certificate or certificates has or have been delivered to the Euroclear Operator or Cedel pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

(e) Upon any such exchange of a portion of the Global Security for a Definitive Security or Securities, the Global Security shall be endorsed by the Fiscal Agent to reflect the reduction of its principal amount by an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of such Definitive Security or Securities. Until so exchanged in full, the Global Security shall in all respects be entitled to the same benefits under this agreement as Definitive Securities authenticated and delivered hereunder.

(f) The Company and any Agent may deem and treat the Person in whose name any Registered Security shall be registered upon the Security Register as the absolute owner of such Security (whether or not such Security shall be overdue and notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing thereon) for the purpose of receiving payment of or on account of the principal of and, subject to the provisions of this Agreement, interest on such Security and for all other purposes; and neither the Company nor any Agent shall be affected by any notice to the contrary. All such payments so made to any such Person, or upon his order, shall be valid, and, to the extent of the sum or sums so paid, effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability for moneys payable upon any such Security.

5. Payment.

(a) The Company will pay or cause to be paid to the Fiscal Agent in New York the amounts, at the times and for the purposes, set forth herein and in the text of the Securities; the Fiscal Agent shall thereupon remit such payments to the Paying Agent, which is authorized and instructed by the Company and the Fiscal Agent to make payment of the principal of and interest on and Additional Amounts (as defined in Section 2 of the Definitive Securities), if any, on the Securities from such payments.

(b) At least 15 days prior to the date on which any payment of Additional Amounts shall be required to be made pursuant to Section 2 of the Definitive Securities, the Company will furnish the Paying Agent, each other paying agency of the Company and the Fiscal Agent with a certificate of one of its duly authorized officers instructing the Paying Agent and each other paying agency of the Company as to the amounts required (i) to be deducted or withheld for or on account of any taxes described in Section 2 of the Definitive Securities from a payment to be made on that date and (ii) to be paid to each holder of Securities or coupons as Additional Amounts pursuant to that Section. If the foregoing amounts are not uniform for all holders, then the Company's certificate shall specify by country of residence or other factor the amounts required to be deducted or withheld and to be paid as Additional Amounts for each holder or class of holders of the Securities or coupons.

In the absence of its receipt of any such certificate from the Company, the Paying Agent may make payment without deduction or withholding. The Company hereby agrees to indemnify the Paying Agent, each other paying agency of the Company and the Fiscal Agent for, and to hold them harmless against, any loss, liability or expense reasonably incurred without negligence, default or bad faith on their part, arising out of or in connection with actions taken or omitted by any of them in reliance on any certificate furnished pursuant to this Section.

(c) Interest on any Registered Security that is payable, and is punctually paid or duly provided for, on any interest payment date shall be paid to the person in whose name that Security is registered at the close of business on the January 1 or July 1 immediately preceding such interest payment date (each a "Record Date"). In case a Bearer Security is surrendered for exchange for a Registered Security after the close of business on any Record Date and before the opening of business on the next succeeding interest payment date, the Fiscal Agent shall not be required to perform such transfer or exchange of such Security.

(d) In the case of any Registered Security which is converted after any Record Date and on or prior to the next succeeding interest payment date (other than any Registered Security called for redemption prior to such interest payment date), interest that is payable on such interest payment date shall be payable on such interest payment date notwithstanding such conversion, and such interest shall be paid to the person in whose name that Registered Security is registered at the close of business on such Record Date. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the immediately preceding sentence, in the case of any Security which is converted, interest that is payable after the date of conversion on such Security shall not be payable.

(e) Any interest on any Registered Security that is payable, but is not punctually paid or duly provided for, on any interest payment date shall forthwith cease to be payable to the registered holder thereof on the relevant Record Date by virtue of having been such holder, and such defaulted interest may be paid by the Company to the registered holder of such Registered Security on a subsequent record date established by the Company in any lawful manner if, after notice given by the Company to the Fiscal Agent of the proposed payment pursuant to this Section 5(e), such manner of payment shall be deemed practicable by the Fiscal Agent.

(f) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this Section 5, each Security delivered under this Agreement upon registration of transfer of or in exchange for or in lieu of any other Security shall carry all the rights to interest accrued and unpaid, and to accrue, which were carried by such other Security.

(g) In order to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on the Securities as the same shall become due and payable, the Company shall pay to the Fiscal Agent in New York, in such coin or currency of the United States of America as at the time of payment is legal tender for the payment of public and private debts therein, and in same day funds, the following amounts (and the Company shall give notice to the Fiscal Agent at least one full business day prior to the date payment is due to the Paying Agent as to the means of such payment), which payment the Fiscal Agent shall thereupon remit to the Paying Agent at its office in London to be held and applied by the Paying Agent as hereinafter set forth:

(i) The Company shall pay to the Fiscal Agent on the business day immediately prior to each interest payment date an amount sufficient to pay the interest due on (and Additional Amounts, if any, on) all the Securities outstanding on such interest payment date; the Fiscal Agent shall remit such payment to the Paying Agent, and the Paying Agent shall apply the amounts so paid to it to the payment of such interest (and Additional Amounts, if any) on such interest payment date.

(ii) If the Company shall elect, or shall be required, to redeem the Securities in accordance with Section 6 hereof, the Company will pay to the Fiscal Agent, which shall thereupon remit such payment to the Paying Agent on the business day immediately prior to the date fixed for redemption thereof, an amount sufficient (after deducting any amount then held by the Paying Agent and available for the purpose) to pay the redemption price of the Securities called for redemption on the redemption date or entitled to be redeemed, together with accrued interest thereon (and Additional Amounts, if any, thereon) to the date fixed for redemption, and the Paying Agent shall apply such amount to the payment of the redemption price and accrued interest (and Additional Amounts, if any) in accordance with the terms of the Securities.

(iii) on the business day immediately prior to the maturity date of the Securities, the Company shall pay to the Fiscal Agent, which shall thereupon remit such payments to the Paying Agent an amount which, together with any amounts then held by the Paying Agent, and available for payment thereof, shall be equal to the entire amount of principal and interest (and Additional Amounts, if any) to be due on such maturity date on all the Securities then outstanding, and the Paying Agent shall apply such amount to the payment of the principal of and interest on (and Additional Amounts, if any, on) the Securities in accordance with the terms of the Securities.

6. Redemption. If, under the circumstances described in Section 3 of the Definitive Securities, the Company shall elect to redeem the outstanding Securities, the following provisions shall be applicable:

(a) The Company shall, at least 60 days (or such shorter period as shall be reasonably acceptable to the Fiscal Agent) before the date designated for such redemption, give notice to the Agents of its election to redeem the outstanding Securities on the redemption date specified in such notice and state in such notice that the conditions precedent to such redemption have occurred and describe them, and in the case of redemptions pursuant to Section 3(d) of the Definitive Securities shall provide to the Fiscal Agent notice of the occurrence of a Change in Control (as defined in Exhibit A hereto), and shall request the Fiscal Agent to arrange for publication and mailing of the notice specified in Section 6(c) below.

(b) In case the Company shall give notice to the Agents of its election to redeem the Securities, the Fiscal Agent shall cause to be published on behalf of the Company a notice of redemption in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of the Definitive Securities and shall mail by first-class mail a copy of the notice to each holder of a Registered Security at the address of such holder as it shall appear in the Security Register. The Fiscal Agent shall send a copy of such notice of redemption to the Company, the Paying Agent (if different from the Fiscal Agent) and each other paying agency of the Company.

(c) Such notice shall be published on behalf and at the expense of the Company in an Authorized Newspaper (as defined in Section 19 hereof) in New York City, London and, so long as the Securities are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, in Luxembourg, as set forth in Section 19 of this Agreement and Section 3 of the Definitive Securities. In the case of a redemption in whole, notice will be given once not more than 60 nor less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption. In the case of a partial redemption, notice will be given twice, the first such notice to be given not more than 60 nor less than 45 days prior to the date fixed for redemption and the second such notice to be given not more than 45 and not less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption. The Fiscal Agent shall notify the Company promptly of the portions of outstanding Securities to be called for redemption.

(d) Under the circumstances described in Section 3(d) of the Definitive Securities concerning the redemption of outstanding Securities at the option of the holders thereof, the following provisions shall be applicable:

(i) The Company shall give notice to the Agents of the occurrence of a Change in Control immediately upon the occurrence of such Change in Control. Such notice shall state:

(A) The Holder Redemption Date (as that term is defined in Section 3(d) of the Definitive Securities) in respect of such Change in Control;

(B) The redemption price as set forth in Section 3(d) of the Definitive Securities; and

(C) The place or places of payment of the Definitive Securities.

(ii) The Fiscal Agent shall cause to be published on behalf of the Company a notice of entitlement to redeem in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of the Definitive Securities and shall mail by first-class mail a copy of such notice to each holder of a Registered Security at the address of such holder as it shall appear in the Security Register. The Fiscal Agent shall send a copy of such notice of entitlement to redeem to the Company, the Paying Agent (if different from the Fiscal Agent) and each other paying agency of the Company.

(iii) Such notice shall be published on behalf and at the expense of the Company in an Authorized Newspaper (as defined in Section 19 hereof) in New York City, London and so long as the Securities are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, in Luxembourg, as set forth in Section 19 of this Agreement and Section 3 of the Definitive Securities. Notice shall be given not later than 10 days after the later of the Exchange Date or the date of the occurrence of a Change in Control.

(iv) Upon the deposit of any of the Definitive Securities with the agency designated by the Company as the place for payment of the Definitive Securities together with a duly signed and completed redemption notice, all in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of the Definitive Securities, the holder of such Definitive Security shall be entitled to receive a non-transferable receipt evidencing such deposit.

(v) The Fiscal Agent shall notify the Company on each business day in the ten days prior to the Holder Redemption Date for outstanding Securities to be redeemed under this Section 6(d) of the amount required to redeem such Securities.

7. Conversion of Securities.

(a) Subject to and upon compliance with the provisions of this Section 7, at the option of the holder thereof, any Definitive Security or, in the case of any Registered Security or Bearer Security of a denomination other than $1,000, any portion of the principal amount thereof which is $1,000 or an integral multiple of $1,000 may be converted at any time on or after the date which is, in the case of Bearer Securities, the Exchange Date or, in the case of Restricted Securities, the date of the effectiveness of the registration statement relating to the Common Stock issuable upon conversion of such Restricted Securities (the "Registration Date"), at the principal amount thereof, or of such portion thereof, into fully paid and nonassessable shares of Common Stock of the Company (the "Common Stock") as set forth in the Definitive Securities. The price at which shares of Common Stock shall be delivered upon conversion (herein called the "Conversion Price") shall be initially $30.68 per share of Common Stock. The Conversion Price shall be adjusted in certain instances as provided in Section 4(c)(i), (ii), (iii), (iv), (vi) and (vii) of the Definitive Securities.

(b) In order to exercise the conversion privilege, the holder of any Security to be converted shall surrender such Security, together with all unmatured coupons (other than the coupon that matures on January 15, 1998 if such Security is called for redemption on January 15, 1998, the interest on which coupon shall be paid in accordance with the terms of such coupon) and any matured coupons in default appertaining thereto, at the office of the Conversion Agent or any office or agency of the Company maintained for that purpose pursuant to Section 12(f), accompanied by written notice, in substantially the form set forth in the Definitive Security, to the Company, at such office or agency that the holder elects to convert such Security or, if less than the entire principal amount of a Registered Security or Bearer Security of a denomination other than $1,000 is to be converted, the portion thereof to be converted. Registered Securities surrendered for conversion during the period after the close of business on any Record Date next preceding any interest payment date to the close of business on such interest payment date shall be accompanied by payment of any amount equal to interest payable on such interest payment date on the principal amount being surrendered for conversion, unless such Registered Securities have been called for redemption on January 15, 1998, in which case such Registered Securities shall not be accompanied by such payment. Except as otherwise provided in the immediately preceding sentence and subject to Section 5(d), no payment or adjustment shall be made upon any conversion on account of any interest accrued on the Securities surrendered for conversion or on account of any dividends on the Common Stock issued upon conversion.

(c) Securities shall be deemed to have been converted immediately prior to the close of business on the day of surrender of such Securities for conversion in accordance with the foregoing provisions, and at such time the rights of the holders of such Securities as holders shall cease, and the person or persons entitled to receive the Common Stock issuable upon conversion shall be treated for all purposes as the record holder or holders of such Common Stock at such time. As promptly as practicable on or after the conversion date, the Company shall cause to be issued or delivered to the address specified by the holder in the conversion notice a certificate or certificates for the number of full shares of Common Stock issuable or deliverable upon conversion, together with payment, in lieu of any fraction of a share, as provided below.

(d) In the case of any Registered Security or Bearer Security of a denomination other than $1,000 which is converted in part only, upon such conversion the Company shall execute and the Fiscal Agent shall authenticate and deliver to the holder thereof, at the expense of the Company, a new Security or Securities of any authorized kind or denomination as requested by such holder, in aggregate principal amount equal to the unconverted portion of the principal amount of such Security.

(e) So long as any rights pursuant to the Company's Shareholder Rights Plan or any successor plan thereto (the "Rights") have not expired, been redeemed or otherwise terminated, the Holder of any Securities surrendered for conversion will be entitled to receive upon such conversion, in addition to shares of Common Stock issuable upon such conversion, (a) the same number of Rights to which a holder of a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Conversion Shares is entitled at the time of such conversion in accordance with the Shareholder Rights Plan, if such conversion occurs on or prior to the date on which the Rights become exercisable or (b) if such conversion occurs after the date on which the Rights become exercisable (and consequently Rights are no longer issuable pursuant to the terms of the Shareholder Rights Plan) the same number of Rights or the same rights to receive securities, property or cash to which a holder of a number of shares of Common Stock equal to the Conversion Shares would have been entitled on the date on which the Rights became exercisable, upon payment of any required exercise price. The conversion price of the Securities will not be subject to adjustment on account of any declaration, distribution or exercise of the Rights.

(f) No fractional shares of Common Stock shall be issued or delivered upon conversion of Securities. If more than one Security shall be surrendered for conversion at one time by the same holder, the number of full shares which shall be issuable or deliverable upon conversion thereof shall be computed on the basis of the aggregate principal amount of the Securities (or, in the case of Registered Securities or Bearer Securities of a denomination other than $1,000, specified portions thereof) so surrendered. Instead of any fractional share of Common Stock which would otherwise be issuable or deliverable upon conversion of any Security or Securities (or, in the case of Registered Securities or Bearer Securities of a denomination other than $1,000; specified portions thereof), the Company shall pay a cash adjustment in respect of such fraction in an amount equal to the same fraction of the Closing Price per share (as defined in the Definitive Securities) of Common Stock at the close of business on the day preceding the day of conversion.

(g) Whenever the Conversion Price is adjusted as provided in the Definitive Securities:

(i) the Company shall compute the adjusted Conversion Price in accordance with the terms of the Definitive Securities and shall prepare a certificate signed by the President, any Vice President or the Treasurer of the Company setting forth the adjusted Conversion Price and showing in reasonable detail the facts upon which such adjustment is based, and such certificate shall forthwith be filed with the Conversion Agent and at each office or agency maintained for the purpose of conversion of Securities pursuant to Section 12(f); and

(ii) a notice stating that the Conversion Price has been adjusted and setting forth the adjusted Conversion Price shall forthwith be required, and, as soon as practicable after it is required, the Company shall promptly cause a notice setting forth the adjusted Conversion Price to be given to the holders of the Securities as provided in Section 19.

(h) In case:

(i) the Company shall declare a dividend or any other distribution on its Common Stock other than a dividend or distribution paid in cash out of its retained earnings, a regular quarterly dividend consistent with past practice or a dividend payable in stock for which adjustment is made pursuant to the terms of the Definitive Securities; or

(ii) the Company shall authorize the granting to the holders of its Common Stock of rights or warrants to subscribe for or purchase any shares of capital stock of any class or of any other rights; or

(iii) of any reclassification of the Common Stock of the Company (other than a subdivision or combination of its outstanding shares of Common Stock) or of any consolidation or merger to which the Company is a party and for which approval of any stockholders of the Company is required, or of the sale or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company; or

(iv) of the involuntary dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Company; or

(v) the Company proceeds to take any other action which would require an adjustment of the Conversion Price pursuant to the Definitive Securities;

then the Company shall cause to be filed with the Conversion Agent and at each office or agency maintained for the purpose of conversion of Securities a notice setting forth the anticipated adjusted Conversion Price and a brief statement of the facts requiring such adjustment, and shall cause notice to be given as provided in Section 19 except that notice need be given once at least 20 days (or 10 days in any case specified in Section 7(h)(i) or (ii) above) prior to the applicable record date hereinafter specified, stating (x) the date on which a record is to be taken for the purpose of such dividend, distribution, or grant of rights or warrants or, if a record is not to be taken, the date as of which the holders of Common Stock of record to be entitled to such dividend, distribution, rights or warrants is to be determined, or (y) the date on which a reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale, transfer, dissolution, liquidation or winding up or other action is expected to become effective, and the date as of which it is expected that holders of Common Stock of record shall be entitled to exchange their shares of Common Stock for the securities, cash or other property deliverable upon such reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale, transfer, dissolution, liquidation or winding up or other action. The failure to give notice required by this Section or any defect therein shall not affect the legality or validity of any dividend, distribution, rights, warrants, reclassification, consolidation, merger, sale, transfer, dissolution, liquidation or winding up, or other action, or the vote on any such action.

(i) The Company shall, at all times from and after the date on which the Securities are convertible into Common Stock, have reserved and available, free from preemptive rights, out of its authorized but unissued Common Stock, for the purpose of effecting the conversion of Securities, the full number of shares of Common Stock then issuable upon the conversion of all Securities.

(j) The Company shall in good faith use its best efforts (i) to cause all registrations with, and to obtain any approvals by, any governmental authority under any Federal or state law of the United States that may be required before the shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Securities may be lawfully issued or transferred and delivered pursuant to this Section 7 and (ii) to list the shares of Common Stock required to be issued or delivered upon conversion of Securities prior to such issue or delivery on each national securities exchange or trading market on which the outstanding Common Stock is listed or qualified for trading at the time of such issue or delivery.

(k) The Company covenants that all shares of Common Stock which may be issued or delivered upon conversion of Securities will upon issuance be fully paid and nonassessable and, except as provided in Section 13, the Company will pay all stamp, excise or similar taxes or duties, liens and charges with respect to the issue thereof.

(l) All converted Securities shall be held by the Company, and may, at any time, be delivered to the Fiscal Agent for cancellation, which shall hold or dispose of the same in accordance with its policy for disposal of canceled securities or as otherwise directed by the Company. Converted Securities shall not be transferred. The Company will promptly give, or cause to be given, written notice to the Fiscal Agent of the serial numbers of all Securities which have been converted.

(m) In case of any consolidation with, or merger of the Company into, any other corporation, or in case of any merger of another corporation into the Company (other than a merger which does not result in any reclassification, conversion, exchange or cancellation of outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company), or in case of any sale or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, the corporation formed by such consolidation or resulting from such merger or which acquires such assets, as the case may be, shall execute and deliver to the Fiscal Agent an amendment to the Fiscal Agency Agreement providing that the holder of each Definitive Security shall have the right during the period such Security shall be convertible as specified in the Definitive Securities to convert such Securities only into the kind and amount of securities, cash, and other property receivable upon such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer by a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock of the Company into which such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer assuming, if such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer is prior to the period such Security shall be convertible, that the Securities were convertible at such time at the initial Conversion Price as adjusted pursuant to the terms of the Definitive Securities. Such amendment shall provide for adjustments which, for events subsequent to the effective date of such amendment, shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for in the Definitive Securities. The above provisions of this Section shall similarly apply to successive consolidations, mergers, sales or transfers.

(n) Subject to Section 11(j), neither the Fiscal Agent nor the Conversion Agent or agency appointed by the Company shall at any time be under any duty or responsibility to any holder of Securities to determine whether any facts exist which may require any adjustment of the Conversion Price, or with respect to the nature or extent of any such adjustment when made, or with respect to the method employed, or herein or in the Definitive Securities provided to be employed, in making the same. Neither the Fiscal Agent nor the Conversion Agent or agency appointed by the Company shall be accountable with respect to the validity or value (or the kind or amount) of any shares of Common Stock or of any securities or property which may at any time be issued or delivered upon the conversion of any Security; and neither the Fiscal Agent nor the Conversion Agent or agency appointed by the Company makes any representation with respect thereto. Neither the Fiscal Agent nor the Conversion Agent or agency appointed by the Company shall be responsible for any failure of the Company to issue, transfer or deliver any shares of Common Stock or stock certificates or other securities or property or to make any cash payment upon the delivery of any Security for the purpose of conversion or to comply with any of the covenants contained in this Section 7.

(o) Any Common Stock issued upon conversion of a Restricted Security ("Restricted Common Stock") at any time prior to the date which is three years after the Closing Date when a registration statement in respect of such Common Stock is not effective under the Securities Act shall be subject to the restrictions on transfer set forth in Section 3(a) hereof to the same extent as such Restricted Securities which were so converted. All shares of Restricted Common Stock shall bear the legend and transfer requirements set forth on the form of Registered Security set forth as Exhibit A hereto. Nothing in this paragraph shall in any way diminish the obligations of the Company under Section 7(q).

(p) The Fiscal Agent has no duty to determine when an adjustment under this Section 7 should be made, how it should be made or whether it should be made. The Fiscal Agent shall not be accountable for and makes no representation as to the validity or value of any securities or assets issued upon conversion of the Securities.

(q) The Company covenants to use its best efforts to have effective under the Securities Act, by a registration statement on Form S-3 or on such other form that may be used for the ongoing or "shelf" registration of such securities (a "Shelf Registration"), no later than September 30, 1995, any Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Restricted Securities such that the Common Stock issuable upon such conversion may be lawfully issued or transferred and delivered. The Company shall keep such Shelf Registration continuously effective during a period ending three years after the date of this Fiscal Agency Agreement or such shorter period that terminates on the date on which all Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Restricted Securities has been sold pursuant to such Shelf Registration. The Company will bear all reasonable costs and expenses of such Shelf Registration.

8. Surrendered Securities. All Securities, together with any coupons appertaining thereto, surrendered for payment, redemption, retirement, transfer or exchange and all coupons paid through the application of interest installments shall be delivered to the Fiscal Agent. In any such case the Fiscal Agent shall cancel all Securities and coupons not previously canceled and deliver to the Company or dispose of all such Securities and coupons in accordance with the Fiscal Agent's policy for disposal of canceled securities.

9. Mutilated, Destroyed, Stolen or Lost Securities. The Fiscal Agent is hereby authorized, in accordance with the provisions of the Securities and this Section, from time to time to authenticate and deliver Securities in exchange for or in lieu of Securities that become mutilated, destroyed, stolen or lost, upon receipt of indemnity and such other documents or proof as may be required in form and substance satisfactory to the Fiscal Agent and the Company. Every Security authenticated and delivered in exchange for or in lieu of any such Security shall be considered the obligation of the Company and shall carry all the rights to interest accrued and unpaid and to accrue which were carried by such Security, and notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, but without diminishing the effect of any indemnity required under this Section 9 any new Bearer Security shall have attached thereto such coupons that neither gain nor loss in interest shall result from such exchange or substitution.

10. Signatures. Securities shall be executed on behalf of the Company by its Chairman, President, its Secretary, any Vice President or its Treasurer or any Assistant Secretary, any of whose signatures may be manual or in facsimile, and any coupons appertaining thereto shall be executed on behalf of the Company by the facsimile signature of its Chairman, President, its Secretary, any Vice President or its Treasurer or any Assistant Secretary. Any signature in facsimile may be imprinted or otherwise reproduced on the Securities. The Company may adopt and use the signature or facsimile signature of any person who shall be a Chairman, President, Secretary, Vice President, Treasurer or Assistant Secretary at the time of the execution of the Securities, notwithstanding the fact that at the time the Securities shall be authenticated and delivered, or disposed of, such person shall have ceased to have held such office by virtue of which such person so executed such security.

11. Agreements Concerning Agents. Each of the Agents accepts its obligations herein and in the Securities, upon the terms and conditions hereof and thereof, including the following, to all of which the Company agrees and to all of which the rights hereunder of the holders from time to time of the Securities and coupons shall be subject:

(a) Each of the Agents shall be entitled to reasonable compensation for all services rendered by such Agent, as separately agreed to from time to time by the Company and such Agent, and the Company agrees to pay promptly such compensation and to reimburse each of the Agents for the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including, but not limited to, reasonable counsel fees and expenses) incurred by such Agent without negligence, default or bad faith on the part of such Agent in connection with the services rendered by it hereunder. The Company also agrees to indemnify each of the Agents and each other paying agency and conversion agency of the Company for, and to hold it harmless against, any loss, liability or expense (including the costs and expenses of defending against any claim of liability, including the reasonable fees and expenses of its counsel) incurred without negligence, default or bad faith on the part of such Agent or other paying agency and conversion agency, arising out of or in connection with its acting as an Agent or other paying agency and conversion agency of the Company hereunder. The obligations of the Company under this Section 11(a) shall survive payment of the Securities or the resignation or removal of any Agent or paying agency and conversion agency.

(b) In acting under this Agreement and in connection with the Securities, each of the Agents and each other paying agency and conversion agency of the Company is acting solely as agent of the Company, and does not assume any obligation, or relationship of agency or trust, for or with any of the owners or holders of the Securities or coupons, except that all funds held by the Paying Agent or any other paying agency of the Company for payment of principal of or interest on (or Additional Amounts, if any, on) the Securities shall be held in trust but need not be segregated from other funds except as required by law; and shall be applied as set forth herein and in the Securities; provided, however, that monies paid by the Company to the Paying Agent or any other paying agency of the company for the payment of principal of or interest on (or Additional Amounts, if any, on) Securities remaining unclaimed at the end of two years after such principal or interest (or Additional Amounts, if any) shall have become due and payable shall be repaid to the Company, as provided and in the manner set forth in the Definitive Securities, whereupon the aforesaid trust shall terminate and all liability of the Paying Agent or such other paying agency of the Company with respect thereto shall cease.

(c) Each of the Agents and each other paying agency and conversion agency of the company may consult with one or more counsel satisfactory to it (including counsel to the Company), and the written opinion of such counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken, omitted or suffered by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with the opinion of such counsel.

(d) Each of the Agents and each other paying agency and conversion agency of the Company shall be protected and shall incur no liability for or in respect of any action taken, omitted or suffered by it without negligence, default or bad faith on its part in reliance upon any Security or coupon, notice, direction, consent, certificate, affidavit, statement or other paper or document believed in good faith by such Agent or such other paying agency and conversion agency of the Company to be genuine and to have been signed by the proper party or parties.

(e) Each of the Agents and each other paying agency and conversion agency of the Company, its officers, directors and employees may become the owner of, or acquire any interest in, any Securities or coupons, with the same rights that it or they would have if it were not an Agent or such other paying agency of the Company hereunder, and may engage or be interested in any financial or other transaction with the Company and its affiliates and may act on, or as depository, trustee or agent for, any committee or body of holders of Securities or other obligations of the Company, as freely as if it were not an Agent or a paying agency or conversion agency of the Company hereunder.

(f) Neither the Paying Agent nor any other paying agency of the Company shall be under any liability for interest on, or have any responsibility to invest, any monies at any time received by it pursuant to any of the provisions of this Agreement or of the Securities.

(g) The recitals contained herein and in the Securities (except in the Fiscal Agent's certificates of authentication), shall be taken as the statements of the Company, and the Agents assume no responsibility for the correctness of the same. None of the Agents makes any representation as to the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement or the Securities or coupons or the Company's offering circular or any other offering material, except for such Agent's due authorization to execute this Agreement. Neither the Agents nor any other paying agency of the Company shall be accountable for the use or application by the Company of the proceeds of any Securities.

(h) The Agents and each other paying agency and conversion agency of the Company shall be obligated to perform such duties and only such duties as are herein and in the Securities specifically set forth and no implied duties or obligations shall be read into this Agreement or the Securities against the Agents or any other paying agency or conversion agency of the Company. The Agents shall not be under any obligation to take any action hereunder which may tend to involve them in any expense or liability, the payment of which within a reasonable time is not, in their reasonable opinion, assured to them.

(i) Unless herein or in the Securities otherwise specifically provided, any order, certificate, notice, request, direction, or other communication, from the Company made by or given by it under any provision of this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be sufficient if signed by the Chairman, President, the Secretary, Assistant Secretary, any Vice President or the Treasurer of the Company.

(j) Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, none of the Agents shall incur any liability hereunder, except as a result of negligence, default or bad faith attributable to it or its officers or employees, and shall incur no liability for the negligence or bad faith of its agents appointed by it with due care; provided, however, that the Agent shall notify the Company of the appointment of any such agents.

(k) Except as specifically provided herein or in the Securities, none of the Agents shall have any duty or responsibility in case of any default by the Company in the performance of its obligations (including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any duty or responsibility to accelerate all or any of the Securities or to initiate or to attempt to initiate any proceedings at law or otherwise or to make any demand for the payment thereof upon the Company).

(l) To the extent permitted by law, none of the Agents shall be liable for any loss caused by events beyond the reasonable control of the Agents, including any malfunction, interruption of or error in the transmission of information caused by any machines or system or interception of communication facilities, abnormal operating conditions or acts of God. To the extent permitted by law, the Agents shall have no liability whatsoever for any consequential, special, indirect or speculative loss or damages suffered by the Company or any other persons in connection with the transactions contemplated by and the relationship established by this Agreement even if the Agents have been advised as to the possibility of the same. These provisions will override all other provisions of this Agreement.

12. Offices, Resignation, Successors, Etc. of Agents; Paying, Conversion and Transfer Agencies.

(a) The Company agrees that, until none of the Securities and coupons is outstanding or until monies for the payment of all principal of and interest on (and Additional Amounts payable pursuant to Section 2 of the Definitive Securities, if any, on) all outstanding Securities shall have been made available at the office of the Paying Agent and shall have been returned to the Company as provided in the Securities, there shall at all times be a Fiscal Agent in the Borough of Manhattan, New York City, which shall be a bank or trust company organized and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or any State of the United States of America, in good standing and authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trust powers, a Paying Agent and a Conversion Agent, each having offices in a city in Western Europe and in New York City, which shall be a bank or trust company organized, in good standing and doing business under the laws of the United States of America or of any State of the United States of America, and a paying agency and a conversion agency in at least one city in Western Europe, which shall be Luxembourg so long as the Securities are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.

(b) Each of the Agents may at any time resign as such Agent by giving written notice to the Company of such intention on its part, specifying the date on which its desired resignation shall become effective; provided, however, that such date shall never be less than ninety days after receipt of such notice by the Company unless the Company agrees to accept less notice. Each of the Agents hereunder may be removed at any time by the filing with it at least 30 days prior to the date of such proposed removal, an instrument in writing signed on behalf of the Company and specifying such removal and the date when it is intended to become effective. Such resignation or removal shall take effect upon the date of the appointment by the Company, as hereinafter provided, of a successor Fiscal Agent, Conversion Agent, Transfer Agent or Paying Agent, as the case may be, and the acceptance of such appointment by such successor Agent. Upon its resignation or removal, each of the Agents shall be entitled to the payment by the Company of its compensation for the services rendered hereunder and to the reimbursement of all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the services rendered hereunder by such Agent.

(c) In case at any time any of the Agents shall resign, or shall be removed, or shall be incapable of acting, or shall file a voluntary petition as a debtor under Chapter 7 or 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code or have an order for relief-entered against it as a debtor under Chapter 7 or 11 of the Title 11 of the United States Code or make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors or consent to the appointment of a receiver of all or any substantial part of its property, or shall admit in writing its inability to pay or meet its debts as they mature, or if an order of any court shall be entered approving any petition filed by or against the Fiscal Agent under any legislation similar to the provisions of Title 11 of the United States Code or against any of the Agents under the provisions of any legislation similar to the provisions of Title 11 of the United States Code, or if a receiver of it or of all or any substantial part of its property shall be appointed, or if any public officer shall take charge or control of it or of its property or affairs, for the purpose of rehabilitation, conservation or liquidation, a successor Agent, qualified as aforesaid, shall be appointed by the Company by an instrument in writing. Upon the appointment as aforesaid of a successor Agent and acceptance by it of such appointment, the Agent so superseded shall cease to be such Agent hereunder. If no successor Agent shall have been so appointed by the Company and shall have accepted appointment as hereinafter provided, any holder of a Security, on behalf of itself and all others similarly situated, or any Agent may petition any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Agent and shall promptly notify the Company of such action.

(d) Any successor Fiscal Agent, Conversion Agent, Transfer Agent or Paying Agent appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to its predecessor and to the Company an instrument accepting such appointment hereunder, and thereupon such successor Agent, without any further act, deed or conveyance, shall become vested with all the authority, rights, powers, trusts, immunities, duties and obligations of such predecessor with like effect as if originally named as such Agent hereunder, and such predecessor, upon payment of its charges and disbursements then unpaid, shall thereupon become obligated to transfer, deliver and pay over, and such successor Agent shall be entitled to receive, all monies, securities or other property on deposit with or held by such predecessor, as such Agent hereunder.

(e) Any corporation or bank into which any of the Agents hereunder may be merged or converted, or any corporation or bank with which such Agent may be consolidated, or any corporation or bank resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which such Agent shall be a party, or any corporation or bank to which such Agent shall sell or otherwise transfer all or substantially all the assets and business of such Agent, or any corporation to which the Fiscal Agent shall sell or otherwise transfer all or substantially all of its corporate trust business; provided, however, that it shall satisfy all requirements of this Agreement and the Definitive Securities to act as such Agent, shall be the successor to such Agent under this Agreement without the execution or filing of any document or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

(f) So long as there shall be a Fiscal Agent and Paying Agent hereunder, the Company shall maintain agencies (i) where Registered Securities (but not Bearer Securities or coupons) may be presented for surrender and payment (and for the payment of Additional Amounts on the Registered Securities, if any) and where Securities may be surrendered for conversion in the Borough of Manhattan, New York City, and (ii) where Securities and coupons may be surrendered for payment (and for the payment of Additional Amounts, if any (pursuant to Section 2 of the Definitive Securities), on Bearer Securities) and where Securities may be surrendered for conversion in at least one city in Western Europe, which shall be Luxembourg so long as the Securities are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. The Company now intends to maintain additional agencies (subject to applicable laws and regulations) where Bearer Securities and coupons may be surrendered for payment (and for the payment of Additional Amounts, if any (pursuant to Section 2 of the Definitive Securities), on Bearer Securities), where Registered Securities may be surrendered for payment and where Securities may be surrendered for conversion in London, England and Luxembourg, and during such period to keep the Agents advised of the names and locations of such agencies. Unless the Company shall otherwise notify each of the Agents in writing, the sole such paying agencies and conversion agencies shall be the agencies specified in the Securities. The Company authorizes the Paying Agent to pay to or to the order of the aforesaid agencies, upon demand by such agencies, funds for the payment of the principal of and interest on (and Additional Amounts pursuant to Section 2 of the Definitive Securities, if any, on) the Securities. Except as otherwise arranged by the Company, the Fiscal Agent shall arrange for the payment of the compensation of such paying agencies for their services as such, and the Company shall pay to the Fiscal Agent from time to time sufficient funds to make such payments.

(g) So long as there shall be a Fiscal Agent, Paying Agent and Conversion Agent hereunder, the Company shall maintain, in New York City, a Security Registrar and additional transfer agencies (the "Transfer Agents") (i) where Registered Securities may be surrendered for exchange for Registered Securities and (ii) in at least one city in Western Europe, where Bearer Securities may be delivered in exchange for Bearer Securities or for Registered Securities. Consistent with applicable laws and regulations, including the provisions of the federal income tax laws of the United States, such agencies may be the same agencies as or different agencies from those maintained by the Company pursuant to Section 12(f).

The Company hereby appoints Banque Internationale a Luxembourg S.A. ("Banque Luxembourg"), 69, route d'Esch, L-1470 Luxembourg, as Transfer Agent for such exchanges. The transfer, exchange and registration of transfer or exchange of Registered Securities shall be made by the Fiscal Agent in New York City or by Banque Luxembourg, as agent for the Fiscal Agent, so long as the Securities are registered on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.

13. Taxes. The Company will pay all stamp taxes and other similar duties, if any, that may be imposed by the United States of America or the United Kingdom, or any state or political subdivision thereof or taxing authority therein, with respect to the execution or delivery of this Agreement, or the issuance of the Global Security, or the exchange from time to time of the Global Security for Definitive Securities, or with respect to the issue or delivery of shares of Common Stock on conversion of Securities; provided, however, that the Company shall not be required to pay any tax or duty which may be payable in respect of any transfer involved in the issue or delivery of shares of Common Stock in a name other than that of the holder of the Security or Securities to be converted, and no such issue or delivery shall be made unless and until the person requesting such issue has paid to the Company the amount of any such tax or duty or has established to the satisfaction of the Company that such tax or duty has been paid.

14. Meetings and Votes of Holders.

(a) A meeting of holders of Securities may be called at any time and from time to time pursuant to this Section for any of the following purposes: (i) to give any notice to the Company or to the Fiscal Agent, or to give any directions to the Fiscal Agent, or to consent to the waiving of any default hereunder or under the Definitive Securities and its consequences, or to take any other action authorized to be taken by holders of Securities pursuant to Section 9 of the Definitive Securities; or (ii) to take any other action authorized to be taken by or on behalf of the Securities under any other provision of this Agreement, the Definitive Securities or under applicable law.

(b) Meetings of holders of Securities may be held at such place or places in New York City or London as the Fiscal Agent or, in case of its failure to act, the Company or the holders calling the meeting shall from time to time determine.

(c) The Fiscal Agent may at any time call a meeting of holders of Securities to be held at such time and at such place in any of the locations designated in Section 14(b) hereof as the Fiscal Agent shall determine. Notice of every meeting of holders shall be made as specified in Section 19 hereof, except that such notice shall set forth the time and the place of such meeting, in general terms the action proposed to be taken at such meeting and a general description of regulations applicable to such meeting and shall be published at least three times in the publications specified in such Section 19, the first publication to be not less than 21 nor more than 180 days prior to the date fixed for the meeting.

(d) In case at any time the Company or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities shall have requested the Fiscal Agent to call a meeting of the holders, by written request setting forth in reasonable detail the action proposed to be taken at the meeting, and the Fiscal Agent shall not have given the first notice of such meeting within 21 days after receipt of such request or shall not thereafter proceed to cause the meeting to be held as provided herein, then the Company or the holders of Securities in the amount above specified may determine the time and the place in either of the locations designated in Section 14(b) hereof for such meeting and may call such meeting to take any action authorized in Section 14(a) hereof by giving notice thereof as provided in Section 14(c) hereof.

(e) To be entitled to vote at any meeting of holders of Securities, a person shall be (i) a holder of one or more Securities, or (ii) a person appointed by an instrument in writing as proxy for a holder or holders of Securities by such holder or holders, which proxy need not be a holder of Securities. The only persons who shall be entitled to be present or to speak at any meeting of holders shall be the persons entitled to vote at such meeting and their counsel and any representatives of the Fiscal Agent and its counsel and any representatives of the Company and its counsel.

(f) The persons entitled to vote a majority in principal amount of the outstanding Securities shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business specified in Section 14(a) hereof. No business shall be transacted in the absence of a quorum unless a quorum is represented when the meeting is called to order. In the absence of a quorum within 30 minutes of the time appointed for any such meeting, the meeting shall, if convened at the request of the holders of Securities (as provided in Section 14(d) hereof), be dissolved. In any other case the meeting shall be adjourned for a period of not less than 10 days as determined by the chairman of the meeting prior to the adjournment of such adjourned meeting. Notice of the reconvening of any adjourned meeting shall be given as provided in Section 14(c) hereof except that such notice need be published only once but must be given not less than five days prior to the date on which the meeting is scheduled to be reconvened. Subject to the foregoing, at the reconvening of any meeting adjourned for a lack of a quorum the persons entitled to vote 25% in principal amount of the Securities shall constitute a quorum for the taking of any action set forth in the notice of the original meeting. Notice of the reconvening of an adjourned meeting shall state expressly the percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Securities that shall constitute a quorum. At a meeting or an adjourned meeting duly reconvened and at which a quorum is present as aforesaid, any resolution and all matters (except as limited by Section 9 of the Definitive Securities) shall be effectively passed and decided if passed or decided by the persons entitled to vote a majority in principal amount of the Securities represented and voting at such meeting; provided, however, that such amount shall be not less than 25% in principal amount of the Securities outstanding. Any holder of a Security who has executed an instrument in writing appointing a person as his proxy shall be deemed to be present for the purposes of determining a quorum and be deemed to have voted; provided, however, that such holder shall be considered as present or voting only with respect to the matters covered by such instrument in writing. Any resolution effectively passed or decision taken at any meeting of the holders of Securities duly held in accordance with this Section 14 shall be binding on all the holders of Securities whether or not present or represented at the meeting.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Fiscal Agent may make such reasonable regulations as it may deem advisable for any meeting of holders of Securities in regard to proof of the holding of Securities and of the appointment of proxies and in regard to the appointment and duties of inspectors of votes, the submission and examination of proxies, certificates and other evidence of the right to vote, and such other matters concerning the conduct of the meeting as it shall reasonably deem appropriate. Except as otherwise permitted or required by any such regulations, the holding of Bearer Securities shall be proved by the production of the Bearer Securities or by a certificate executed, as depository, by, and the appointment of any proxy shall be proved by having the signature of the persons executing the proxy witnessed or guaranteed by, in each case, any trust company, bank or banker satisfactory to the Fiscal Agent. Such regulations may provide that written instruments appointing proxies, regular on their face, may be presumed valid and genuine without the proof specified herein or other proof. The holding of Registered Securities shall be proved by the registry books maintained in accordance with Section 2(d) hereof or by a certificate or certificates of the Fiscal Agent in its capacity as the Company's agent for the maintenance of such books.

(h) The Fiscal Agent shall, by an instrument in writing, appoint a temporary chairperson of the meeting, unless the Company or the holders of Securities called the meeting or requested the Fiscal Agent to call the meeting as provided in Section 14(d) hereof, in which case the Company or the holders calling or requesting the meeting, as the case may be, shall in like manner appoint a temporary chairperson. A permanent chairperson and a permanent secretary of the meeting shall be elected by vote of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the Securities represented at the meeting and entitled to vote.

(i) At any meeting each holder or proxy shall be entitled to one vote for each U.S. $1,000 principal amount of Securities held or represented by him; provided, however, that no vote shall be cast or counted at any meeting in respect of any Securities challenged as not outstanding and ruled by the chairperson of the meeting to be not outstanding. The chairperson of the meeting shall have no right to vote, except as a holder or proxy.

(j) Any meeting of holders of Securities duly called pursuant to Section 14(c) or 14(d) hereof at which a quorum is present may be adjourned from time to time by vote of the holders (or proxies for the holders) of a majority in principal amount of the Securities represented at the meeting and entitled to vote; and the meeting may be held as so adjourned without further notice.

(k) The vote upon any resolution submitted to any meeting of holders of Securities shall be by written ballots on which shall be subscribed the signatures of the holders of Securities or of their representatives by proxy and the serial number or numbers of the Securities held or represented by them. The permanent chairperson of the meeting shall appoint two inspectors of votes who shall count all votes cast at the meeting for or against any resolution and who shall make and file with the secretary of the meeting their verified written reports in duplicate of all votes cast at the meeting. A record, at least in duplicate, of the proceedings of each meeting of holders of Securities shall be prepared by the secretary of the meeting and there shall be attached to said record the original reports of the inspectors of votes on any vote by ballot taken thereat and affidavits by one or more persons having knowledge of the facts setting forth a copy of the notice of the meeting and showing that said notice was published as provided in Section 14(c) or 14(d) hereof and, if applicable, Section 14(f) hereof. Each copy shall be signed and verified by the affidavits of the chairperson and secretary of the meeting, and one such copy shall be delivered to the Company and another to the Fiscal Agent to be preserved by the Fiscal Agent, the copy delivered to the Fiscal Agent to have attached hereto the ballots voted at the meeting. Any record so signed and verified shall be conclusive evidence of the matters therein stated.

15. Merger, Consolidation or Sale of Assets.

(a) If at any time there shall be a merger, consolidation, sale or conveyance of assets or assumption of obligations to which any of the covenants contained in Section 6 of the Definitive Securities pertains, then in any such event the successor or assuming corporation referred to therein will promptly deliver to the Fiscal Agent:

(i) A certificate signed by an executive officer of such successor or assuming corporation stating that as of the time immediately after the effective date of any such transaction the covenants of the Company contained in the Definitive Securities have been complied with and the successor or assuming corporation is not in default under the provisions of this Agreement or the Securities, as applicable; and

(ii) A written opinion of legal counsel (who may be an employee of or counsel to the successor or assuming corporation) stating that in such counsel's opinion such covenants have been complied with and that any instrument or instruments executed in the performance of such covenants comply with the requirements thereof.

In case of any such merger, consolidation, sale, conveyance or assumption, such successor or assuming corporation shall succeed to and be substituted for the Company with the same effect, subject to (in the case of a merger to which the Company is a party) Section 6(b) of the Definitive Securities, as if it had been named herein and in the Definitive Securities as the Company; the Company shall thereupon be relieved of any further obligation or liability hereunder or upon the Securities, and the Company, as the predecessor corporation may thereupon or at any time thereafter be dissolved, wound up or liquidated. If applicable, such successor or assuming corporation thereupon may cause to be signed, and may issue either in its own name or in the name of the Company any or all of the Securities issuable hereunder which theretofore shall not have been executed on behalf of the Company and delivered to the Fiscal Agent; and, upon the order of such successor or assuming corporation, instead of the Company, and subject to all the terms, conditions and limitations in this Agreement prescribed, the Fiscal Agent shall authenticate and shall deliver any Securities which previously shall have been signed and delivered by the officers of the Company to the Fiscal Agent for authentication, and any Securities which such successor or assuming corporation thereafter shall cause to be signed and delivered to the Fiscal Agent for that purpose. All the Securities so issued shall in all respects have the same legal rank and benefit under this Agreement as the Securities theretofore or thereafter issued in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though all of such Securities had been issued at the date of the execution hereof.

In case of any merger, consolidation, sale, conveyance or assumption, such changes in phraseology and form (but not in substance) may be made in the Securities thereafter to be issued as may be appropriate.

In the event any merger, consolidation, sale, conveyance or assumption results in a Change of Control, each holder of Definitive Securities may have the right to require the Company to purchase such Definitive Securities in the manner provided in Section 3(d) of the Definitive Securities.

(b) The Fiscal Agent may rely on the documents delivered pursuant to this Agreement by any successor or assuming corporation pursuant to this Section 15 as conclusive evidence that any such merger, consolidation, sale, conveyance or assumption complies with the provisions of this Section and the Securities.

16. Governing Law; Limitations on Interest.

(a) This Agreement, the Securities and any coupons appertaining thereto shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of the State of New York, United States of America, without giving effect to its choice of law rules.

(b) It is the intention of the Company to conform strictly to all applicable usury laws and any subsequent revisions, repeals or judicial interpretations thereof. Without in any way limiting the parties' strict intent to have the substantive laws of the State of New York apply to all of the terms of this Agreement, the Securities and coupons, including without limitation, to the interest rate provisions thereof, if the transactions contemplated hereby would be usurious under any applicable law, then, in that event, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Securities, the coupons or this Fiscal Agency Agreement, it is agreed as follows: (i) the aggregate of all consideration which constitutes interest under applicable law that is contracted for, taken, reserved, charged, collected or received under a Security, a coupon or this Fiscal Agency Agreement or otherwise in connection with such Security or coupon shall under no circumstances exceed the maximum amount allowed by applicable law, and any excess shall be credited to the principal amount of such Security or the Security to which such coupon appertains (or, if the principal amount of such Security shall have been paid in full, refunded to the Company); and (ii) in the event that the maturity of any Security is accelerated or in the event of any redemption or in the event of any conversion of such Security, then such consideration that constitutes interest under applicable law may never include more than the maximum amount allowed by applicable law, and excess interest, if any, provided for in this Fiscal Agency Agreement, such Security or any coupon appertaining thereto or otherwise shall be cancelled automatically as of the date of such acceleration, redemption or conversion and, if theretofore paid, shall be credited to the principal amount of such Security or the Security to which such coupon appertains (or, if the principal amount of such Security shall have been paid in full, refunded by such holder of Securities to the Company), to the extent permitted by applicable law. All calculations made to compute the rate of interest that is contracted for, taken, reserved, charged, collected or received under any Security or coupon or under this Fiscal Agency Agreement or otherwise in connection with such Security or any coupon appertaining thereto for the purpose of determining whether such rate exceeds the maximum amount allowed by applicable law shall be made, to the extent permitted by such applicable law, by amortizing, prorating, allocating and spreading during the period of the full stated term of such Security all interest at any time contracted for, taken, reserved, charged or received by such Holder or by the Fiscal Agent on behalf of any such holder of Securities in connection therewith so that the amount or rate of interest charged for any and all periods of time during the term of the Security is to the greatest extent possible less than the maximum amount or rate of interest allowed to be charged by law during the relevant period of time. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing, if at any time applicable laws shall be changed so as to permit a higher rate or amount of interest to be charged than that permitted prior to such change, then unless prohibited by law, references in this Fiscal Agency Agreement or any Security to "applicable law" when used in the context of determining the maximum interest or rate of interest that can be charged, shall be deemed to refer to such applicable law as so amended to allow the greater amount or rate of interest.

The Fiscal Agent shall have no responsibility to determine whether any payments with respect to the Securities are in compliance with any applicable usury laws and subsequent revisions, repeals or judicial interpretations thereof. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Fiscal Agency Agreement or the Securities, the Fiscal Agent and any paying agent of the Company may continue to make payments on the Securities without regard to the application of this Section 16(b) unless and until it shall have received from the Company (1) an opinion of the Company's counsel to the effect that, as the result of a final judicial decision by a court of competent jurisdiction (which decision need not be rendered in litigation specifically relating to the Debentures), any payments with respect to the Securities will exceed the maximum amount allowed by applicable law and that any direction to the Fiscal Agent by the Company for action under this Section 16(b) is in compliance with all applicable laws and the provisions of this Fiscal Agency Agreement and the Securities and (2) a Certificate of an Authorized Officer setting forth the action required to be taken with respect to the Securities and coupons pursuant to this Section 16(b), together with any computations or calculations with respect thereto, and stating that such action is in compliance with the provisions of this Fiscal Agency Agreement and the Securities.

17. Amendments. This Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto, and certain provisions hereof may be waived, in the manner provided in Section 9 of the Definitive Securities. This Agreement may also be amended by the parties hereto, without the consent of the holder of any Security, for the purposes set forth in Section 9 of the Definitive Securities and for the purpose of curing any ambiguity, or of curing, correcting or supplementing any defective provision contained herein or in any manner that the parties may mutually deem necessary or desirable and that shall not adversely affect the interests of the holders of the Securities; provided, however, that the Fiscal Agent shall be entitled to rely on an opinion of counsel provided by the Company to the foregoing effect.

18. Agent for Service of Process. As long as any of the Securities or coupons appertaining thereto remain outstanding, the Company will at all times have an authorized agent in the City of New York, upon whom process may be served in any legal action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or any Security or any coupons appertaining thereto. Service of process upon such agent and written notice of such service mailed or delivered to the Company shall to the extent permitted by law be deemed in every respect effective service of process upon the Company in any such legal action or proceeding. The Company hereby appoints the Fiscal Agent as its agent for such purpose, and covenants and agrees that service of process in any legal action or proceeding may be made upon it at the office of such agent at 450 West 33rd Street, 15th Floor, New York, New York 10001, U.S.A., Attention: Corporate Trust, Agency Administration (or such other address in the City of New York, as may be the principal corporate trust office of such agent in New York), unless and until the Company shall designate another agent for such purpose by written notice to the Fiscal Agent. If the Fiscal Agent receives any such service of process, it shall promptly notify the Company of such service and remit any documents to the Company.

19. Notices.

All notices hereunder shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in the mail as first class mail, registered or certified, return receipt requested, postage prepaid, addressed to any party hereto as follows:

Notices to holders of the Securities shall be given by publication in the English language in an Authorized Newspaper. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Authorized Newspaper" means a newspaper customarily published on each business day in morning editions, whether or not it shall be published in Saturday, Sunday or holiday editions, such as The Wall Street Journal (Eastern edition) in New York City, the Financial Times in London and the Luxemburger Wort in Luxembourg. If by reason of the temporary or permanent suspension of publication of any newspaper or by reason of any other cause it shall be impossible to make publication of such notice in an Authorized Newspaper as herein provided, then such publication or other notice in lieu thereof as shall be made by the Fiscal Agent shall constitute sufficient publication of such notice, if such publication or other notice shall, so far as may be possible, approximate the terms and conditions of the publication in lieu of which it is given. Notices will be mailed to registered holders of Registered Securities at their registered address as the same shall appear on the books of the Fiscal Agent on the day fifteen days prior to such mailing. The Fiscal Agent shall promptly furnish to the Company and to each other paying agency of the Company a copy of each notice so published or mailed.

20. No Recourse Against Others. No director, officer, employee or shareholder, as such, of the Company shall have any liability for any obligations of the Company under the Securities or this Agreement or for any claim based on, in respect of or by reason of such obligations or their creation. Each holder accepting a Security waives and releases all such liability. This waiver and release is part of the consideration for the issue of the Securities.

21. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in separate counterparts, and by each party separately in a separate counterpart, each such counterpart, when so executed and delivered, to be an original. Such counterparts shall together constitute but one and the same instrument.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have executed
this Agreement as of the date first above written.

Terms and Conditions of the Securities

1. General.

(a) This Security is one of a duly authorized issue of Securities of the Company designated as its 6% Convertible Subordinated Debentures due 2002 (herein called the "Securities"), limited in aggregate principal amount to U.S. $172,500,000. The Company, for the benefit of the holders from time to time of the Securities, has entered into a Fiscal Agency Agreement dated as of January 4, 1995 (the "Fiscal Agency Agreement"), between the Company and Chemical Bank, as Fiscal Agent, Paying Agent, Security Registrar and Conversion Agent (the "Fiscal Agent"), to which Fiscal Agency Agreement reference is hereby made for a statement of the respective rights, limitations of rights, duties and immunities thereunder of the Company, the Fiscal Agent, and the holders of Securities and any coupons appertaining thereto and of the terms upon which the Securities are, and are to be, authenticated and delivered. The holders of the Securities will be entitled to the benefits of, be bound by, and be deemed to have notice of, all of the provisions of the Fiscal Agency Agreement. A copy of the Fiscal Agency Agreement is on file and may be inspected at the offices of paying agencies appointed by the Company.

(b) The Securities are issuable as bearer Securities (the "Bearer Securities"), with interest coupons attached, in the denominations of U.S. $1,000 and U.S. $10,000, and as registered Securities (the "Registered Securities"), without coupons, in denominations of U.S. $1,000 and integral multiples thereof. The Registered Securities, and transfers thereof, shall be registered as provided in Section 8 hereof and in the Fiscal Agency Agreement. The holder of any Bearer Security or any coupon and the registered holder of a Registered Security shall (to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law) be treated at all times, by all persons and for all purposes as the absolute owner of such Security or coupon, as the case may be, regardless of any notice of ownership, theft or loss or of any writing thereon.

(c) The Securities are direct and unsecured obligations of the Company, subordinated as set forth in Section 7 hereof. There are no restrictions herein or in the Fiscal Agency Agreement on other indebtedness or securities which may be incurred or issued by the Company or its subsidiaries, or on the ability of the Company to pledge, collaterally assign, grant a security interest in, or otherwise hypothecate any of its properties or properties of any of its subsidiaries.

2. Additional Amounts.

The Company will pay, as additional interest ("Additional Amounts"), to the holder of this Security or of any coupon appertaining hereto who is a United States Alien (as defined below) such amounts as may be necessary in order that every net payment of the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on this Security, after withholding for or on account of any present or future tax, assessment or other governmental charge imposed upon or as a result of such payment by the United States or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein, will not be less than the interest provided herein or any coupon appertaining hereto to be then due and payable; provided, however, that the foregoing obligation to pay Additional Amounts shall not apply to:

(a) any tax, assessment or other governmental charge which would not have been so imposed but for (i) the existence of any present or former connection between such holder (or between a fiduciary, settlor or beneficiary of, or a person holding a power over, such holder, if such holder is an estate or trust, or a member of such holder, if such holder is a partnership) and the United States, including, without limitation, such holder (or such fiduciary, settlor, beneficiary, person holding a power or member) being or having been a citizen or resident or treated as a resident thereof or being or having been engaged in a trade or business therein or being or having been present therein or having or having had a permanent establishment therein, (ii) such holder's present or former status as a personal holding company, foreign personal holding company, passive foreign investment company, foreign private foundation or other foreign tax-exempt entity or controlled foreign corporation for United States tax purposes or a corporation which accumulates earnings to avoid United States Federal income tax, or (iii) such holder's status as a bank extending credit pursuant to a loan agreement entered into in the ordinary course of business;

(b) any tax, assessment or other governmental charge which would not have been so imposed but for the presentation by the holder of this Security or any coupon appertaining hereto for payment on a date more than 10 days after the date on which such payment became due and payable or on the date on which payment thereof is duly provided, whichever occurs later;

(c) any estate, inheritance, gift, sales, transfer or personal property tax or any similar tax, assessment or other governmental charge;

(d) any tax, assessment or other governmental charge which would not have been imposed but for the failure to comply with certification, information, documentation or other reporting requirements concerning the nationality, residence, identity or present or former connection with the United States of the holder or beneficial owner of such Security or any related coupon if such compliance is required by statute, regulation or ruling of the United States or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein as a precondition to relief or exemption from such tax, assessment or other governmental charge;

(e) any tax, assessment or other governmental charge which is payable otherwise than by withholding from payments of principal of and premium, if any, or interest on this Security;

(f) any tax, assessment or other governmental charge imposed on interest received by a person holding, actually or constructively, 10 percent or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock of the Company entitled to vote; or

(g) any tax, assessment or other governmental charge required to be withheld by any paying agent from any payment of principal of and premium, if any, or interest on any Security or interest on any coupon appertaining thereto if such payment can be made without such withholding by any other paying agent;

nor shall Additional Amounts be paid with respect to any payment of the principal of and premium, if any, or interest on this Security to a person other than the sole beneficial owner of such payment to the extent such beneficial owner would not have been entitled to the Additional Amounts had such beneficial owner been the holder of this Security or any coupon appertaining hereto.

The term "United States Alien" means any person who, for United States Federal income tax purposes, is a foreign corporation, a non-resident alien individual, a non-resident alien fiduciary of a foreign estate or trust, or a foreign partnership to the extent one or more of the members of which is, for United States Federal income tax purposes, a foreign corporation, a non-resident alien individual or a non-resident alien fiduciary of a foreign estate or trust, and the term "United States" means the United States of America, its territories and possessions.

Except as specifically provided herein and in the Fiscal Agency Agreement, the Company shall not be required to make any payment with respect to any tax, assessment or other governmental charge imposed by any government or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein.

3. Redemption.

(a) The Company, at its option, may redeem the Securities, in whole or in part (but if in part, in a aggregate principal amounts of no less than $10,000), at any time or times on or after January 15, 1998 at the redemption prices (expressed in percentages of principal amount) set forth below plus accrued and unpaid interest to the date fixed for redemption, if redeemed during the 12-month period beginning on January 15 of the years indicated below:

Year ----	Percentage -----
1998.....	103.0%
1999.....	102.0%
2000.....	101.0%
2001 and thereafter.....	100.0%

If fewer than all of the then outstanding Securities are to be redeemed, the Securities to be redeemed will be selected by the Fiscal Agent not more than 75 days prior to the date fixed for redemption, by such method as the Fiscal Agent shall deem fair and appropriate. Provisions of this Security that apply to Securities called for redemption also apply to portions of Securities called for redemption. The Fiscal Agent shall notify the Company promptly of the Securities or portions of Securities to be called for redemption.

(b) If, at any time, the Company shall determine that as a result of any change in or amendment to the laws (or any regulations or rulings promulgated thereunder) of the United States or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein affecting taxation, or any amendment to or change in an official application or interpretation of such laws, regulations or rulings which change or amendment becomes effective on or after January 4, 1995, the Company has or will become obligated to pay to the holder of any Security or coupon Additional Amounts and such obligation cannot be avoided by the Company taking reasonable measures available to it, then the Company may, at its election exercised at any time when such conditions continue to exist, redeem the Securities as a whole at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date fixed for redemption; provided, however, that no such notice or redemption shall be given earlier than 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the Company would be obliged to pay such Additional Amounts were a payment in respect of this Security then due; provided, further, that at the time such notice is given, such obligation to pay such Additional Amounts remains in effect.

Prior to any redemption of the Securities pursuant to the preceding paragraph, the Company shall provide the Fiscal Agent with one or more certificates (signed by the President or any Vice President and the Treasurer or the Secretary) of the Company to the effect that the Company is entitled to redeem the Securities pursuant to such paragraph and that the conditions precedent to the right of the Company to redeem the Securities pursuant to such paragraph have occurred and a written opinion of counsel (who may be an employee of the Company) stating that all legal conditions precedent to the right of the Company to redeem the Securities pursuant to such paragraph have occurred.

(c) The Company shall, except as set forth in the succeeding paragraph, redeem the Securities as a whole but not in part, at 100% of their principal amount, together with accrued and unpaid interest to the date fixed for redemption, after determining, based on a written opinion of the Company's counsel, that any certification, identification or information reporting requirement of United States law or regulation with regard to the nationality, residence or identity of a beneficial owner of a Bearer Security or a coupon appertaining thereto who is a United States Alien (as defined in Section 2 hereof) would be applicable to a payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on a Bearer Security or a coupon appertaining thereto made outside the United States by the Company or a paying agent (other than a requirement (a) which would not be applicable to a payment made (i) directly to the beneficial owner or (ii) to a custodian, nominee or other agent of the beneficial owner, or (b) which could be satisfied by the holder, custodian, nominee or other agent certifying that the beneficial owner is a United States Alien; provided, however, that in each case referred to in Section 3(a)(ii) and (b) payment by such custodian, nominee or agent to the beneficial owner is not otherwise subject to any requirement referred to in this sentence). The Company shall make such determination and will notify the Fiscal Agent thereof as soon as practicable, stating in the notice the effective date of such certification, identification, or information reporting requirement and the dates within which the redemption shall occur, and the Fiscal Agent shall give prompt notice thereof in accordance with the Fiscal Agency Agreement. The Company shall determine the redemption date by notice to the Fiscal Agent at least 60 days before the redemption date, unless shorter notice is acceptable to the Fiscal Agent. Such redemption of the Securities must take place on such date, not later than one year after the publication of the initial notice of the Company's determination of the existence of such certification, identification or information reporting requirement. The Company shall not so redeem the securities, however, if the Company shall, based on a subsequent event, determine, based on a written opinion of counsel, not less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption, that no payment would be subject to any requirement described above, in which case the Company shall notify the Fiscal Agent, which shall give prompt notice of that determination in accordance with the Fiscal Agency Agreement and any earlier redemption notice shall thereupon be revoked and of no further effect.

Notwithstanding the next preceding paragraph, if and so long as the certification, identification or information reporting requirement referred to in the next preceding paragraph would be fully satisfied by payment of United States withholding, backup withholding or similar taxes, the Company may elect, prior to the giving of the notice of redemption, to have the provisions of this paragraph apply in lieu of the provisions of the next preceding paragraph. In that event, the Company will pay such Additional Amounts (without regard to Section 2 hereof) as are necessary in order that, following the effective date of such requirements, every net payment made outside the United States by the Company or a paying agent of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on a Bearer Security or a coupon appertaining thereto to a holder who is a United States Alien (without regard to a certification, identification or information reporting requirement as to the nationality, residence or identity of such holder), after deduction for United States withholding, backup withholding or similar taxes (other than withholding, backup withholding or similar taxes (i) which would not be applicable in the circumstances referred to in the parenthetical clauses of the first sentence of the next preceding paragraph or (ii) are imposed as a result of presentation of such Bearer Security or coupon for payment more than 10 days after the date on which such payment becomes due and payable or on which payment thereof is duly provided for, whichever is later), will not be less than the amount provided in the Bearer Security or the coupon to be then due and payable. If the Company elects to pay such Additional Amounts and as long as it is obligated to pay such Additional Amounts, the Company may subsequently redeem the Securities, at any time, in whole but not in part, upon not more than 60 days nor less than 30 days notice, at 100% of their principal amount, plus accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption and Additional Amounts, if any.

(d) Each Security is subject to redemption in whole or in part (which shall be in a principal amount hereof which is U.S. $1,000 or an integral multiple thereof) at the option of the holder thereof on any Holder Redemption Date (as defined below) at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if a Change in Control shall occur or have occurred. For purposes hereof, a "Change in Control" shall be deemed to have occurred at such time as any of the following events shall occur:

(i) Any person (for purposes of this Section 3(d)(i) only, the term "person" shall mean a "person" as defined in or for purposes of Section 13(d)(3) or Section 14(d)(2) of the Exchange Act of 1934 (as defined herein), or any successor provision to either of the foregoing, including any "group" acting for the purpose of acquiring, holding or disposing of securities within the meaning of Rule 13d-5(b)(1) under the Exchange Act of 1934), together with its Affiliates and Associates (as defined herein) shall file or become obligated to file a report under or in response to Schedule 13D or 14D-1 (or any successor schedule, form or report) pursuant to the Exchange Act of 1934 disclosing that such person has become the beneficial owner (as the term "beneficial owner" is defined in Rule 13(d)(3) under the Exchange Act of 1934, or any successor provision) of either (A) 50% or more of the shares of Common Stock then outstanding or (B) 50% or more of the voting power of the Voting Stock (as defined herein) of the Company then outstanding; provided, however, that for purposes of this Section 3(d)(i), a person shall not be deemed the beneficial owner of (1) any securities tendered pursuant to a tender offer or exchange offer made by or on behalf of such person, or its Affiliates or Associates, until such tendered securities are accepted for purchase or exchange thereunder, or (2) any securities in respect of which beneficial ownership by such person arises solely as a result of a revocable proxy delivered in response to a proxy or consent solicitation that is made pursuant to, and in accordance with, the Exchange Act of 1934 and the applicable rules and regulations thereunder and is not then reportable on Schedule 13D (or any successor schedule, form or report) under the Exchange Act of 1934.

(ii) There shall be consummated any sale, transfer, lease or conveyance of all or substantially all of the properties and assets of the Company to any other corporation or corporations or other person or persons (other than a Subsidiary of the Company).

(iii) There shall be consummated any consolidation of the Company with or merger of the Company with or into any other corporation or corporations or entity or entities (whether or not affiliated with the Company) in which the Company is not the sole surviving or continuing corporation or pursuant to which the shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately prior to the consummation of such consolidation or merger are converted into cash, securities or other property, other than a consolidation or merger in which the holders of shares of Common Stock receive, directly or indirectly, (A) 75% or more of the common stock of the sole surviving or continuing corporation outstanding immediately following the consummation of such consolidation or merger and (B) securities representing 75% or more of the combined voting power of the Voting Stock of the sole surviving or continuing corporation outstanding immediately following the consummation thereof of such consolidation or merger.

"Exchange Act of 1934" shall mean the United States Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

"Voting Stock" shall mean with respect to any person, the capital stock of such person having general voting power under ordinary circumstances to elect at least a majority of the board of directors, managers or trustees of such person (irrespective of whether or not at the time capital stock of any other class or classes shall have or might have voting power by reason of the happening of any contingency).

"Associate" shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in Rule 12b-2 under the Exchange Act of 1934, as in effect on the date hereof.

The "Holder Redemption Date" with respect to any Change in Control described in this Section 3(d) shall be the ninetieth day after the later of the Exchange Date or the thirty-fifth business day after the occurrence of the Change in Control.

A holder of a Security who has tendered a redemption notice (i) will be entitled to revoke its election by delivering a written notice of such revocation together with the holder's non-transferable receipt for such Security to the office or agency of the Company designated as the place for the payment of the Securities to be so redeemed on or before the Holder Redemption Date and (ii) will retain the right to convert its securities into shares of Common Stock of the Company on or before the Holder Redemption Date.

(e) Notice of redemption will be given by publication in Authorized Newspapers (as defined in the Fiscal Agency Agreement) in The City of New York and in London, and, so long as the Securities are listed on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange, in Luxembourg, and by mail to holders of Registered Securities, in each case in the English language, all as provided in the Fiscal Agency Agreement. In the case of a redemption in whole at the option of the Company, notice will be given once not more than 60 nor less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption. In the case of a partial redemption at the option of the Company, notice will be given twice, the first such notice to be given not more than 60 or less than 45 days prior to the date fixed for redemption and the second such notice to be given not more than 45 or less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for redemption. In the case of the occurrence of a Change in Control, notice will be given once by the Fiscal Agent setting forth the information described below not later than 10 days after the later of the Exchange Date or the occurrence of a Change in Control. Neither the failure to give notice nor any defect in any notice given to any particular holder of a Security shall affect the sufficiency of any notice with respect to other Securities.

Notices relating to the redemption of Securities whether at the option of the Company or the holder thereof shall specify: the date fixed for redemption or the Holder Redemption Date, as the case may be; the redemption price; the place or places of payment; that payment will be made upon presentation and surrender of the Securities to be redeemed, together, in the case of a Bearer Security, with all appurtenant coupons, if any, maturing subsequent to the date fixed for redemption; that interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption (unless the redemption date is an interest payment date) will be paid as specified in said notice; and that on and after said date interest thereon will cease to accrue. In the case of a redemption by the Company at the option of the holder of a Security, the notices given by the Fiscal Agent informing a holder of such holder's entitlement to redeem shall also specify that a holder electing redemption will be entitled to revoke its election by delivering a written notice of such revocation, together with the holder's non-transferable receipt for such Security, to the agency designated by the Company as the place for the payment of the Securities to be so redeemed not later than the Holder Redemption Date in the case of a redemption pursuant to Section 3(d) hereof. In the case of a redemption in part at the option of the Company, notices shall specify the aggregate principal amount of Securities to be redeemed and the aggregate principal amount of Securities outstanding after such partial redemption. The first notice shall specify the last date on which exchanges or transfers of Securities may be made, and the second notice shall specify the serial numbers of the Securities and the portions thereof called for redemption. In the case of a redemption in whole or in part by the Company, notices shall specify the date the conversion privilege expires in accordance with Section 4(a) hereof. Such notices shall also state that the conditions precedent, if any, to such redemption have occurred and the last day for surrender of the Securities being redeemed.

(f) If (i) notice or redemption has been given in the manner set forth in Section 3(e) hereof with respect to Securities to be redeemed at the option of the Company, or (ii) notice of redemption has been given by the holder of a Security to be redeemed pursuant to Section 3(d) hereof, the Securities so to be redeemed shall become due and payable on the applicable redemption date specified in such notice and upon presentation and surrender of the Securities at the place or places specified in the notice given by the Company with respect to such redemption, together in the case of Bearer Securities with all appurtenant coupons, if any, maturing subsequent to the redemption date, the Securities shall be paid and redeemed by the Company, at the places and in the manner and currency herein specified and at the redemption price together with accrued interest, if any, to the redemption date; provided, however, that interest due in respect of coupons maturing on or prior to the redemption date shall be payable only upon the presentation and surrender of such coupons (at an office or agency located outside of the United States of America). If any Bearer Security surrendered for redemption shall not be accompanied by all appurtenant coupons maturing after the redemption date, such Security may be paid after deducting from the amount otherwise payable an amount equal to the face amount of all such missing coupons, or the surrender of such missing coupon or coupons may be waived by the Company and the Fiscal Agent if they are furnished with such security or indemnity as they may require to save each of them and each other paying agency of the Company harmless. From and after the redemption date, if monies for the redemption of Securities shall have been available at the principal corporate trust office of the Fiscal Agent for redemption on the redemption date, the Securities shall cease to bear interest, the coupons for interest appertaining to Bearer Securities maturing subsequent to the redemption date shall be void, and the only right of the holders of such Securities shall be to receive payment of the redemption price together with accrued interest to the redemption date if the redemption date is an interest payment date. If monies for the redemption of the Securities are not made available for payment until after the redemption date, the Securities shall not cease to bear interest until such monies have been so made available.

4. Conversion.

(a) Subject to and upon compliance with the provisions of the Fiscal Agency Agreement, a holder of Securities other than Restricted Securities is entitled, at his option, at any time on or after the Exchange Date (as defined in the Fiscal Agency Agreement), and a holder of Restricted Securities is entitled at his option, at any time on or after the Registration Date (as defined in the Fiscal Agency Agreement), and, in each case, on or before the close of business on January 15, 2002, or in case a Security or a portion thereof is called for redemption by the Company, or the holder thereof elects to have such Security or a portion thereof redeemed by the Company pursuant to Section 3(d) hereof, then in respect of such Security or such portion thereof until and including, but (unless the Company defaults in making the payment due upon redemption) not after, the close of business on the business day immediately preceding date fixed for redemption, to convert such Security (or any portion of the principal amount thereof which is U.S. $1,000 or an integral multiple thereof), at the principal amount thereof, or of such portion, into fully paid and nonassessable shares (calculated as to each conversion to the nearest 1/1000 of a share) of Common Stock of the Company ("Common Stock") at a Conversion Price equal to U.S. $30.68 aggregate principal amount of Securities for each share of Common Stock (the "Conversion Price") (or at the current adjusted Conversion Price if an adjustment has been made as provided herein) by surrender of the Security, or in the case of a Security submitted for redemption pursuant to Section 3(d) hereof, satisfactory evidence of such submission, together with (i) if a Bearer Security, all unmatured coupons (other than the coupon that matures on January 15, 1998 if such Bearer Security is called for redemption on January 15, 1998, the interest on which coupon shall be paid in accordance with the terms of the coupon) and any matured coupons in default appertaining thereto, and if a Registered Security (if so required by the Company or the Fiscal Agent), instruments of transfer in form satisfactory to the Company and the Fiscal Agent, duly executed by the registered holder or by his duly authorized attorney and (ii) the conversion notice hereon duly executed (a) at the Corporate Trust Office of the Fiscal Agent, or at such other office or agency of the Company as may be designated by it for such purpose in the City of New York, or (b) subject to any laws or regulations applicable thereto and subject to the right of the Company to terminate the appointment of any such conversion agency, at the offices of Chemical Bank, 450 West 33rd Street, 15th Floor, New York, New York 10001, and Banque Internationale a Luxembourg S.A., 69, route d'Esch, L-1470 Luxembourg, or at such other offices or agencies as the Company may designate.

(b) In the case of any Registered Security which is converted after any Record Date and on or prior to the next succeeding Interest Payment Date (other than any Registered Security whose maturity is prior to such Interest Payment Date), interest that is payable on such Interest Payment Date shall be payable on such Interest Payment Date notwithstanding such conversion, and such interest shall be paid to the person in whose name that Registered Security is registered at the close of business on such Record Date. Except as otherwise provided in the immediately preceding sentence, no payment or adjustment shall be made upon any conversion on account of any interest accrued on the Securities surrendered for conversion or on account of any dividends on the Common Stock issued upon conversion. Registered Securities surrendered for conversion during the period after the close of business on any Record Date next preceding any Interest Payment Date to the close of business on such Interest Payment Date shall be accompanied by payment of any amount equal to interest payable on such Interest Payment Date on the principal amount being surrendered for conversion, unless such Registered Securities have been called for redemption on January 15, 1998, in which case such Registered Securities shall not be accompanied by such payment. No fractions of shares or scrip representing fractions of shares will be issued or delivered on conversion, but instead of any fractional interest the Company shall pay a cash adjustment as provided in the Fiscal Agency Agreement.

(c) (i) In case at any time the Company shall pay or make a stock dividend or other distribution in Common Stock on any class of capital stock of the Company, the Conversion Price in effect at the opening of business on the day following the date fixed for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive such dividend or other distribution shall be reduced so that the same shall equal the price determined by multiplying such Conversion Price by a fraction of which the numerator shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at the close of business on the date fixed for such determination and the denominator shall be the sum of such number of shares and the total number of shares constituting such dividend or other distribution, such adjustment to become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day following the date fixed for such determination.

(ii) In case at any time the Company shall (A) subdivide its outstanding Common Stock, (B) combine its outstanding Common Stock into a smaller number of shares, or (C) issue by reclassification of its Common Stock (including any such reclassification in connection with a consolidation or merger in which the Company is the continuing corporation) any shares, the Conversion Price in effect at the effective date of such subdivision, combination or reclassification shall be proportionately adjusted so that the holder of any Security surrendered for conversion after such time shall be entitled to receive the aggregate number and kind of shares which, if such Security had been converted immediately prior to such time, he would have owned upon such conversion and been entitled to receive upon such subdivision, combination or reclassification. Such adjustment shall be made successively whenever any event listed above shall occur.

(iii) In case at any time the Company shall fix a record date for the issuance of rights or warrants to all holders of its Common Stock entitling them to subscribe for or purchase shares of Common Stock at a price per share less than the current market price per share (determined as provided in Section 4(c)(v)) of the Common Stock on such record date, the Conversion Price in effect at the opening of business on the day following such record date, shall be reduced so that the same shall equal the price determined by multiplying such Conversion Price by a fraction of which the numerator shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at the close of business on such record date plus the number of shares of Common Stock which the aggregate of the offering price of the total number of shares of Common Stock so offered for subscription or purchase would purchase at such current market price and the denominator shall be the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding at the close of business on such record date plus the number of shares of Common Stock so offered for subscription or purchase, such reduction to become effective immediately after the opening of business on the day following such record date. Such reduction shall be made successively whenever such a record date is fixed; and in the event that such rights or warrants are not so issued, the Conversion Price shall again be adjusted to be the Conversion Price which would then be in effect if such record date had not been fixed.

(iv) In case at any time the Company shall fix a record date for the making of a distribution, by dividend or otherwise, to all holders of its Common Stock, of evidences of its indebtedness or assets (including securities, but excluding (x) any dividend or distribution referred to in Section 4(c)(i), any rights or warrants referred to in Section 4(c)(iii), and (y) any dividend or distribution paid in cash out of the retained earnings of the Company or any regular quarterly dividend consistent with past practice), then in each such case the Conversion Price in effect after such record date shall be determined by multiplying the Conversion Price in effect immediately prior to such record date by a fraction, of which the numerator shall be the total number of outstanding shares of Common Stock multiplied by the current market price per share of Common Stock (as defined in Section 4(c)(v)) on such record date, less the fair market value (as determined by the Board of Directors of the Company, whose determination shall be conclusive and described in a statement filed with the Fiscal Agent) of the portion of the assets or evidences of indebtedness so to be distributed, and of which the denominator shall be the total number of outstanding shares of Common Stock multiplied by such current market price per share of Common Stock. Such adjustment shall be made successively whenever such a record date is fixed; and in the event that such distribution is not so made, the Conversion Price shall again be adjusted to be the Conversion Price which would then be in effect if such record date has not been fixed.

(v) For the purpose of any computation under Section 4(c)(iii) and (iv), the current market price per share of Common Stock on any date shall be deemed to be the average of the Closing Prices for the 15 consecutive days upon which the principal trading market for the Common Stock is open selected by the Company commencing not less than 20 nor more than 30 days before the day in question. The Closing Price for any day shall be the last reported sales prices regular way or, in case no such reported sale takes place on such day, the average of the reported closing bid and asked prices regular way, in either case on the New York Stock Exchange or, if the Common Stock is not listed or admitted to trading on such Exchange, on the principal national securities exchange on which the Common Stock is listed or admitted to trading or, if not listed or admitted to trading on any national securities exchange, the closing sale price quoted on the NASDAQ National Market System, or if not so quoted, as determined by the Company.

(vi) The Company may make such downward adjustments in the Conversion Price, in addition to those required by Section 4(c)(i), (ii) and (iii), as it considers to be advisable in order that any event treated for United States Federal income tax purposes as a dividend of stock or stock rights shall not be taxable to the recipients.

(vii) No adjustment in the Conversion Price shall be required unless such adjustment would require change of at least twenty-five cents ($0.25) in such Conversion Price; provided, however, that any adjustment which by reason of this Section 4(c)(vii) is not required to be made shall be carried forward and taken into account in any subsequent adjustment. All calculations under this Section 4(c) shall be made to the nearest cent or to the nearest 1/1000 of a share, as the case may be.

(d) Whenever the Conversion Price is adjusted and in the event of certain other corporate actions, as herein provided, the Company shall give notice, all as provided in the Fiscal Agency Agreement.

(e) The Company shall in good faith use its best efforts (i) to cause all registrations with, and to obtain any approvals by, any governmental authority under any Federal or state law of the United States that may be required before the shares of Common Stock issuable upon conversion of the Restricted Securities may be lawfully issued or transferred and delivered and (ii) to list the shares of Common Stock required to be issued or delivered upon conversion of the Restricted Securities prior to such issue or delivery on each national securities exchange or trade market on which the outstanding Common Stock is listed or qualified for trading at the time of such issue or delivery.

(f) The Company shall, at all times from and after the date of which the Securities are convertible into Common Stock, have reserved and available, free from preemptive rights, out of its authorized but unissued Common Stock, for the purpose of effecting the conversion of Securities, the full number of shares of Common Stock then issuable upon the conversion of all Securities. The Company covenants that all shares of Common Stock which may be issued or delivered upon conversion of Securities will upon issuance be fully paid and nonassessable.

(g) In case of any consolidation with, or merger of the Company into, any other corporation, or in case of any merger of another corporation into the Company (other than a merger which does not result in any reclassification, conversion, exchange or cancellation of outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company), or in case of any sale or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company, the corporation formed by such consolidation or resulting from such merger or which acquires such assets, as the case may be, shall execute and deliver to the Fiscal Agent an amendment to the Fiscal Agency Agreement providing that the holder of each Security shall have the right during the period such Security shall be convertible as specified in Section 4(a) hereof to convert such Security only into the kind and amount of securities, cash and other property receivable upon such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer by a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock of the Company into which such Security might have been converted immediately prior to such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer assuming, if such consolidation, merger, sale or transfer is prior to the period such Security shall be convertible as specified in Section 4(a) hereof, that the Securities were convertible at such time at the initial Conversion Price as adjusted to such time pursuant to Section 4(c)(i), (ii), (iii), (iv) and (vi). Such amendment shall provide for adjustments which, for events subsequent to the effective date of such amendment, shall be as nearly equivalent as may be practicable to the adjustments provided for herein. The above provisions of this Section 4(c) shall similarly apply to successive consolidations, mergers, sales or transfers.

5. Events of Default.

In the event that any of the following ("Events of Default") shall occur and be continuing:

(a) the Company shall fail to pay when due the principal amount of any of the Securities whether at maturity or upon redemption or otherwise; or

(b) the Company shall fail to pay any installment of interest or Additional Amounts (as described in Section 2 hereof) on any of the Securities for a period of 30 days after the date when due; or

(c) the Company shall fail duly to perform or observe any other term, covenant or agreement contained in any of the Securities or in the Fiscal Agency Agreement for a period of 60 days after the date on which written notice of such failure, requiring the Company to remedy the same and stating that such notice is a "Notice of Default" hereunder, shall first have been given to the Company and the Fiscal Agent by the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities at the time outstanding; provided, however, that, in the event the Company shall within the aforesaid period of 60 days commence legal action in a court of competent jurisdiction seeking a determination that the Company had not failed to duly perform or observe the term or terms, covenant or covenants or agreement or agreements specified in the aforesaid notice, such failure shall not be an Event of Default unless the same continues for a period of 10 days after the date of any final determination to the effect that the Company had failed to duly perform or observe one or more of such terms, covenants or agreements; or

(d) a court having jurisdiction in the premises shall enter a decree or order for relief in respect of the Company in an involuntary case or proceeding under any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar law now or hereafter in effect, or appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee, custodian, trustee, sequestrator (or similar official) of the Company or for any substantial part of the property of it or ordering the winding-up or liquidation of the affairs of its and such decree or order shall remain unstayed and in effect for a period of 60 consecutive days; or

(e) the Company shall commence a voluntary case or proceeding under any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other similar law now or hereafter in effect, or shall consent to the entry of an order for relief in an involuntary case under any such law, or shall consent to the appointment of or taking possession by a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, custodian, sequestrator (or similar official) of the Company or for any substantial part of its property, or shall make any general assignment for the benefit of creditors, or shall admit in writing its inability to pay its debts as they become due; or

(f) an event of default, as defined in any indenture or instrument evidencing or under which the Company shall have outstanding at least $25,000,000 (or its equivalent in another currency), in aggregate principal amount of indebtedness for borrowed money, shall happen and be continuing and such default shall involve the failure to pay the principal of such indebtedness (or any part thereof), when due and payable after the expiration of any applicable grace period with respect thereto, or such indebtedness shall have been accelerated so that the same shall be or become due and payable prior to the date on which the same would otherwise have become due and payable, and such failure to pay shall not have been cured by the Company within 30 days after such failure, or such acceleration shall not have been rescinded or annulled within 30 days after notice thereof shall have first been given to the Company; provided, however, that, if such event of default under such indenture or instrument shall be remedied or cured by the Company or waived by the holders of such indebtedness, then the Event of Default hereunder by reason thereof shall be deemed likewise to have been thereupon remedied, cured or waived without further action upon the part of any of the holders of Securities;

then the holder of this Security may, at such holder's option, declare the principal of this Security and the interest accrued hereon (and Additional Amounts under Section 2 hereof, if any, thereon) to be due and payable immediately by written notice to the Company and the Fiscal Agent, and if any such Event of Default shall continue at the time of receipt of such written notice, the principal of this Security and the interest accrued hereon (and Additional Amounts, if any, hereon) shall become immediately due and payable, subject to the right of holders of the requisite principal amount of Securities to waive certain defaults pursuant to Section 9(b) hereof and further subject to the provisos of Section 5(c) and Section 5(f). Upon payment of such amount of principal and interest (and Additional Amounts pursuant to Section 2 hereof, if any), all of the Company's obligations in respect of payment of principal of and interest on (and Additional Amounts, if any, on) this Security shall terminate. Interest on overdue principal and interest (and Additional Amounts, if any) shall accrue from the date on which such principal and interest (and Additional Amounts, if any) were due and payable to the date such principal and interest (and Additional Amounts, if any) are paid or duly provided for, at the rate borne by the Securities (to the extent payment of such interest shall be legally enforceable).

If an Event of Default, as defined in this Section 5, occurs with respect to the Securities, the Company shall within five business days of becoming aware thereof notify the Fiscal Agent in writing, of such Event of Default and the Fiscal Agent shall thereupon promptly notify all of the holders of the Securities of such Event of Default.

The Company shall provide to the Fiscal Agent on each anniversary of the date hereof, a certificate to the effect that there is then existing no Event of Default.

6. Merger, Consolidation, Sale, Conveyance or Assumption.

(a) The Company will not merge or consolidate with, or sell or convey all or substantially all of its assets to, any other corporation, unless (i) either (A) the Company shall be the surviving corporation in the case of a merger or (B) (I) the surviving, resulting or transferee corporation shall expressly assume the due and punctual payment (including Additional Amounts pursuant to Section 2 hereof, if any) of all the Securities, according to their tenor, and the due and punctual performance of all of the covenants and obligations of the Company under the Securities, the coupons and the Fiscal Agency Agreement, by supplemental agreement reasonably satisfactory to the Fiscal Agent, (II) immediately after such merger, consolidation, sale or conveyance, the Securities will not be subject to United States Federal estate tax as a result thereof, if held by a person who at the time of death is not a citizen or resident of the United States unless such successor corporation shall have agreed, by supplemental agreement, to indemnify the persons liable therefor for the amount of the United States Federal estate tax attributable and paid in respect of any Securities includable in the gross estate of a person who at the time of death is not a citizen or resident of the United States or unless the Securities would be subject to United States Federal estate tax immediately prior to such merger, consolidation, sale or conveyance if held by a person who at the time of death is not a citizen or resident of the United States, and (III) the Fiscal Agent shall have received the documentation required in the context by the Fiscal Agency Agreement, (ii) the surviving, resulting or transferee corporation, if not organized and validly existing under the laws of the United States, shall expressly agree to make payment under the Securities free of any deduction or withholding for or on account of taxes, levies, imposts and charges whatsoever imposed by or for the account of the jurisdiction where such successor corporation is generally subject to taxation (or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein) in a manner equivalent to that set forth herein, subject to the exceptions contained in such forms of the Securities, and (iii) the Company or such successor corporation, as the case may be, shall not, immediately after such merger, consolidation, sale or conveyance, be in default in the performance of any covenants or obligations of the Company under the Securities or the Fiscal Agency Agreement. In calculating the amount of tax attributable to any Securities for purposes of sub-clause (II) above in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the gross estate of the decedent shall be deemed to include only Securities issued under the Fiscal Agency Agreement.

(b) Upon any merger, consolidation, sale, conveyance or assumption as provided in Section 6(a), the successor or assuming corporation shall succeed to and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of and be subject to all the obligations of, the Company under the Securities and the Fiscal Agency Agreement, with the same effect as if such successor or assuming corporation had been named as the Company therein and herein and the Company shall be released from its liability as obligor under the Securities and the Fiscal Agency Agreement.

7. Agreement of Subordination of Securities.

(a) The Company, for itself, its successors and assigns, covenants and agrees, and each holder of Securities and coupons by his acceptance thereof, likewise covenants and agrees, that the payment of the principal of and interest and Additional Amounts (pursuant to Section 2 hereof) on each and all of the Securities and coupons is hereby expressly subordinated, to the extent and in the manner hereinafter set forth, in right of payment to the prior payment in full of all Senior Indebtedness of the Company.

"Senior Indebtedness of the Company" shall mean the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest and other monetary obligations on the following whether outstanding at the date of this Security or hereafter incurred or created:

(i) any indebtedness of the Company (excluding the Securities and indebtedness ranking pari passu with the Securities), including, without limitation, all "Obligations" in respect of (A) letters of credit and all "Obligations" under (B) the Second Amended and Restated Credit Agreement dated as of April 30, 1994 among Apache, the Lenders named therein, First National Bank of Chicago as Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent and Chemical Bank as Co-Agent, (C) the 3.93% Convertible Notes due 1997 under the Note Agreement dated as of November 30, 1992, (D) the 9.25% Notes due 2002 under the Indenture dated as of May 15, 1992 between the Company and Norwest, Minnesota, N.A., (E) the Credit Agreement dated as of July 24, 1992 among the Company, First National Bank of Chicago as Lending Agent and Bank of Montreal, Chemical Bank and NationsBank as Lenders;

(ii) all indebtedness and other obligations guaranteed by the Company, or the payment and performance of which is secured by a lien on property or assets of the Company; and

(iii) renewals, extensions, refundings, amendments and modifications of any such indebtedness or obligations or of the instruments creating or evidencing such indebtedness or obligations;

unless by the terms of the instrument creating or evidencing such indebtedness or such renewal, extension, refunding, amendment or modification, it is provided that such indebtedness or indebtedness as so modified or amended, or such renewals, extensions or refundings, are not superior in right of payment to the Securities.

(b) (i) In the event of any insolvency or bankruptcy proceedings, or any receivership, liquidation, reorganization or other similar proceedings in connection therewith, relative to the Company or to its creditors, in their capacity as such creditors, or to its property, or in the event of any proceedings for voluntary liquidation, dissolution or other winding up of the Company, whether or not involving insolvency or bankruptcy, or in the event of any assignment for the benefit of creditors of the Company or any marshalling of assets of the Company, then the holders of Senior Indebtedness of the Company shall first be entitled to receive payment in full in cash of the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest, including interest thereon accruing after the commencement of any such proceeding (whether or not allowed in such proceeding), on all Senior Indebtedness of the Company before the holders of any of the Securities or coupons shall be entitled to receive any payment on account of the principal of or interest and Additional Amounts (pursuant to Section 2 hereof) on the Securities, and to that end the holders of Senior Indebtedness of the Company shall be entitled to receive for application in payment thereof any payment or distribution of any kind or character, whether in cash, property or securities, which may be payable or deliverable in any such proceedings in respect of the Securities or coupons, other than securities of the Company as reorganized or readjusted or securities of the Company or any other corporation provided for by a plan of reorganization or readjustment the payment of which is subordinate, at least to the extent provided in this Section 7 with respect to the Securities, to the payment of all Senior Indebtedness of the Company; provided, however, that the rights of the holders of Senior Indebtedness of the Company are not altered by such reorganization or readjustment. For the purposes of this Section 7 no consolidation, merger, conveyance or transfer made pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 shall be deemed to be a liquidation, reorganization, dissolution or other winding up of the Company.

(ii) If under the circumstances set forth in Section 7(b)(i), and notwithstanding the provisions thereof, any payment or distribution of assets of the Company of any kind, whether in cash, property or securities (other than securities of the Company as reorganized or readjusted or securities of the Company or any other corporation provided for by a plan or reorganization or readjustment the payment of which is subordinated, at least to the extent provided in this Section 7 with respect to the Securities, to the payment of all Senior Indebtedness of the Company; provided, however, that the rights of the holders of Senior Indebtedness of the Company are not altered by such reorganization or readjustment), shall be received by the holders of the Securities or coupons before the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on all Senior Indebtedness of the Company is paid in full, such payment or distribution shall be paid over to the holders of Senior Indebtedness of the Company ratably, for application to the payment of the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on all Senior Indebtedness of the Company remaining unpaid until all the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on Senior Indebtedness of the Company shall have been paid in full in cash, after giving effect to any concurrent payment or distribution to the holders of such Senior Indebtedness of the Company.

(iii) Upon any distribution of assets of the Company referred to in this Section, the holders of Securities shall be entitled to rely upon any final order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction in which such dissolution, winding up, liquidation or reorganization proceedings are pending, and the holders of Securities shall be entitled to rely upon a certificate of the liquidating trustee or agent or other person making any distribution to the holders of Securities for the purpose of ascertaining the persons entitled to participate in such distribution, the holders of the Senior Indebtedness of the Company and other indebtedness of the Company, the amount thereof or payable thereon, the amount or amounts paid or distributed thereon and all other facts pertinent thereto or to this Section.

(c) (i) Upon the maturity of any Senior Indebtedness of the Company by lapse of time, acceleration or otherwise, all principal thereof (and premium, if any) and interest due thereon, including interest thereon accruing after the commencement of any proceeding of the type referred to in Section 7(b)(i) (whether or not allowed in such proceeding), shall first be paid in full, or such payment duly provided for in cash, before any payment, directly or indirectly, is made on account of the principal of or interest and Additional Amounts (pursuant to Section 2 hereof) on the Securities or coupons.

(ii) Upon the happening of an event of default with respect to any Senior Indebtedness of the Company, as defined therein or in the instrument under which it is outstanding, permitting the holders to accelerate the maturity thereof, then, unless and until such event of default shall have been cured or waived or shall have ceased to exist, no payment shall be made by the Company, directly or indirectly, on account of the principal of or interest and Additional Amounts (pursuant to Section 2 hereof) on the Securities or coupons.

(iii) If, under the circumstances set forth in Section 7(c)(i) or (ii) and notwithstanding the provisions thereof, any payment or distribution of assets of the Company of any kind or character, whether in cash, property or securities, shall be received by the Agent or the holders of the Securities, such payment or distribution shall, subject to Section 7(f) and (g), be received in trust for the benefit of the holders of such Senior Indebtedness for application to the payment of all Senior Indebtedness remaining unpaid until all such Senior Indebtedness shall have been paid in full, after giving effect to any concurrent payment or distribution to the holders of such Senior Indebtedness.

(d) In case cash, securities or other property otherwise payable or deliverable to the holders of the Securities and coupons shall have been applied, pursuant to Section 7(b) or (c), to the payment of Senior Indebtedness of the Company, then upon the payment in full in cash of the principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on all Senior Indebtedness of the Company, the holders of the Securities and coupons shall be subrogated to any rights of any holders of Senior Indebtedness of the Company to receive any further payment or distributions applicable to Senior Indebtedness of the Company until the principal of and interest and Additional Amounts (pursuant to Section 2 thereof) on the Securities and coupons shall have been paid in full, and such payments or distributions received by the holders of the Securities and coupons, by reason of such subrogation, of cash, securities or other property which otherwise would be paid or distributed to the holders of Senior Indebtedness of the Company shall, as between the Company and its creditors other than the holders of Senior Indebtedness of the Company, on the one hand, and the holders of the Securities and coupons, on the other hand, be deemed to be a payment by the Company on account of Senior Indebtedness of the Company and not on account of the Securities and coupons.

(e) No present or future holder of any Senior Indebtedness of the Company shall be prejudiced in any way in the right to enforce the subordination of the Securities by any act or failure to act on the part of the Company. The provisions of this Section are solely for the purpose of defining the relative rights of the holders of Senior Indebtedness of the Company, on the one hand, and the holders of the Securities and coupons, on the other hand, against the Company and its assets, and nothing contained in this Section shall impair, as between the Company and the holder of any Security or coupon, the obligation of the Company, which is unconditional and absolute, to pay to the holder thereof the principal thereof and interest and Additional Amounts (pursuant to Section 2 hereof) thereon as and when the same shall become due and payable in accordance with the terms thereof, or prevent the holder of any Security or coupon, upon default hereunder or under such Security or coupon, from exercising all rights, powers and remedies otherwise provided herein or therein or by applicable law, all subject to the rights of the holders of Senior Indebtedness of the Company under this Section to receive cash, property or securities otherwise payable or deliverable to the holders of the Securities and coupons.

(f) Nothing contained in this Section or in any of the Securities or coupons shall prevent at any time, except under the conditions described in Sections 7(b) and (c) hereof or during the pendency of any dissolution, winding up liquidation or reorganization proceedings therein referred to, the Company from making payments at any time of principal of or interest or Additional Amounts, if any, on the Securities. Nothing contained in this Section shall prevent conversions of Securities.

(g) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Section or any other provision of the Fiscal Agency Agreement, the Fiscal Agent shall not be charged with knowledge of the existence of any facts which would prohibit the making of any payment to or by the Fiscal Agent in respect of the Securities, unless and until the Fiscal Agent shall have received written notice thereof at the address specified in Section 19 of the Fiscal Agency Agreement from the Company or a holder of Senior Indebtedness or from any trustee or agent therefor at least two business days prior to the making of any payment; and, prior to the receipt of any such written notice, the Fiscal Agent, subject to the provisions of Section 11 of the Fiscal Agency Agreement, shall be entitled in all respects to assume that no such facts exist.

Subject to the provisions of Section 11 of the Fiscal Agency Agreement, the Fiscal Agent shall be entitled to rely on the delivery to it of a written notice by a person representing himself to be a holder of Senior Indebtedness (or a trustee or agent on behalf of any such holder). In the event that the Fiscal Agent determines in good faith that further evidence is required with respect to the right of any person as a holder of Senior Indebtedness to participate in any payment or distribution pursuant to this Section 7, the Fiscal Agent may request such person to furnish evidence to the reasonable satisfaction of the Fiscal Agent as to the amount of Senior Indebtedness held by such person, the extent to which such person is entitled to participate in such payment or distribution and any other facts pertinent to the rights of such person under this Section, and if such evidence is not furnished, the Fiscal Agent may defer any payment which it may be required to make for the benefit of such person pursuant to the terms of this Security pending judicial determination as to the rights of such person to receive such payment.

(h) The Fiscal Agent shall not be deemed to owe any fiduciary duty to the holders of Senior Indebtedness and shall not be liable to any such holders if the Fiscal Agent shall in good faith mistakenly pay over or distribute to holders of Securities or to the Company or to any other person cash, property or securities to which any holders of Senior Indebtedness shall be entitled by virtue of this Section or otherwise. The Fiscal Agent shall not be charged with knowledge of the existence of Senior Indebtedness or of any facts that would prohibit any payment hereunder unless a Trust Officer of the Fiscal Agent shall have received notice to that effect at the address of the Fiscal Agent set forth in Section 19 of the Agreement. With respect to holders of Senior Indebtedness, the Fiscal Agent undertakes to perform or to observe only such of its covenants or obligations as are specifically set forth in this Section 7.

8. Replacement, Transfer and Exchange of Securities.

(a) In case any Security shall at any time become mutilated, destroyed, stolen or lost and such Security or evidence of the loss, theft or destruction thereof (together with the indemnity hereinafter referred to and such other documents or proof as may be required) shall be delivered to the Fiscal Agent, a new Security of like tenor and date with appropriate interest coupons, if any, will be issued by the Company in exchange for the Security so mutilated, or in lieu of the Security so destroyed, stolen or lost, but, in the case of a destroyed, stolen or lost Security only upon receipt of evidence satisfactory to the Fiscal Agent and the Company that such Security was destroyed, stolen or lost, and if required by the Fiscal Agent or the Company, upon receipt also of indemnity satisfactory to the Fiscal Agent and the Company. All expenses and reasonable charges associated with procuring such indemnity and with the preparation, authentication and delivery of a new Security shall be borne by the owner of the Security so mutilated, destroyed, stolen or lost.

(b) As provided in the Fiscal Agency Agreement and subject to certain limitations therein set forth, Bearer Securities (with all unmatured coupons appertaining thereto) are exchangeable at, subject to applicable laws and regulations, the offices of the paying agencies in London and Luxembourg or as designated by the Company for such purpose pursuant to the Fiscal Agency Agreement, for an equal aggregate principal amount of Registered Securities and/or Bearer Securities or authorized denominations, and Registered Securities are exchangeable at the Corporate Trust Office of the Fiscal Agent in The City of New York or, subject to applicable laws and regulations, the offices of the paying agencies in London and Luxembourg or as designated by the Company for such purpose pursuant to the Fiscal Agency Agreement, for an equal aggregate principal amount of Registered Securities of authorized denominations as requested by the holder surrendering the same. Registered Securities will not be exchangeable for Bearer Securities. The Company shall not be required (a) to exchange Bearer Securities for Registered Securities during the period between the close of business on any January 1 or July 1 and the opening of business on the next succeeding interest payment date, or (b) in the event of a redemption in part, (i) to register the transfer of Registered Securities or to exchange Bearer Securities for Registered Securities during a period of 15 days immediately preceding the date notice is given identifying the serial numbers of the Securities called for such redemption; (ii) to register the transfer of or exchange any such Registered Securities, or portion thereof, called for redemption; or (iii) to exchange any such Bearer Securities called for redemption; provided, however, that a Bearer Security called for redemption may be exchanged for a Registered Security which is simultaneously surrendered, with written instruction for payment on the date fixed for redemption, unless the date fixed for redemption is during the period between the close of business on any January 1 or July 1 and the close of business on the next succeeding interest payment date, in which case such exchange may only be made prior to the close of business on January 1 or July 1 immediately preceding the date fixed for redemption. The Company also shall not be required to exchange Securities if, as a result thereof, the Company would incur adverse consequences under United States Federal income tax laws in effect at the time of such exchange. In the event of redemption or conversion of a Registered Security in part only, a new Security or Securities for the unredeemed or unconverted portion hereof will be issued in the name of the holder thereof.

(c) The costs and expenses of effecting any exchange or registration of transfer pursuant to the foregoing provisions, except for the expenses of delivery by other than regular mail (if any) and except, if the Company shall so require, the payment of a sum sufficient to cover any tax or other governmental charge or insurance charges that may be imposed in relation thereto, will be borne by the Company.

(d) The Company has initially appointed as registrar and transfer agent the Fiscal Agent acting through its principal corporate trust office in New York. The Company has also initially appointed Banque Internationale a Luxembourg S.A. as a transfer agent. The Company may at any time terminate the appointment of the registrar and transfer agent and appoint additional or other registrars and transfer agents or approve any change in an office through which the registrar or transfer agent acts; provided, however, that, until all of the Securities have been delivered to the Fiscal Agent for cancellation, or monies sufficient to pay the Securities have been made available for payment and either paid or returned to the Company as provided in the Securities, the Company will maintain a registrar and a transfer agent in The City of New York in the United States and in Luxembourg, so long as the Securities are registered on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange.

(e) For purposes of the provisions of this Security and the Fiscal Agency Agreement, any Security authenticated and delivered pursuant to the Fiscal Agency Agreement shall, as of any date of determination, be deemed to be "outstanding", except for:

(i) Securities previously converted, or cancelled by the Fiscal Agent or delivered to the Fiscal Agent for cancellation;

(ii) Securities which have been called for redemption by the Company in accordance with Section 3 hereof or which have become due and payable at maturity or otherwise and with respect to which monies sufficient to pay the principal thereof and interest thereon shall have been made available to the Fiscal Agent; or

(iii) Securities in lieu of or in substitution for which other Securities have been authenticated and delivered pursuant to the Fiscal Agency Agreement; provided, however, that in determining whether the holders of the requisite principal amount of outstanding Securities are present at a meeting of holders of Securities for quorum purposes or have given any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent or waiver hereunder, Securities owned by the Company or any subsidiary thereof shall be disregarded and deemed not to be outstanding.

9. Modifications and Amendments.

(a) Without the consent of any holders of Securities or coupons, modifications of or amendments to the Fiscal Agency Agreement may be made for any of the following purposes:

(i) to evidence the succession of another corporation to the Company and the assumption by any such successor of the covenants of the Company in the Fiscal Agency Agreement or the Securities;

(ii) to add to the covenants of the Company for the benefit of the holders of Securities or coupons, or to surrender any right or power herein conferred upon the Company;

(iii) to permit payment of principal and interest on Bearer Securities in the United States; provided, however, that such payment is permitted by United States tax laws and regulations then in effect;

(iv) to make provision with respect to the conversion rights of holders of Securities pursuant to Section 4(g) hereof;

(v) to cure any ambiguity, to correct or supplement any provision herein or in the Fiscal Agency Agreement which may be inconsistent with any other provision herein;

and

(vi) to make any other provisions with respect to matters or questions arising under this Security or the Fiscal Agency Agreement; provided, however, such action pursuant to this Section 9(a)(vi) shall not adversely affect the interests of the holders of Securities or coupons.

(b) Modifications and amendments to the Fiscal Agency Agreement or to these Securities may be made, and future compliance with or past default by the Company under any of the provisions thereof may be waived, with the consent of the holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities at the time outstanding, or of such lesser percentage as may act at a meeting of holders of Securities held in accordance with the provisions set forth herein; provided, however, that no such modification, amendment or waiver may, without the consent of the holder of each such Security affected thereby:

(i) waive a default in the payment of the principal of or interest on any Security;

(ii) change the stated maturity of the principal of or any installment of interest on, any Security, or reduce the principal amount thereof or the rate of interest thereon or change the obligation of the Company to pay Additional Amounts pursuant to Section 2 hereof (except as permitted by Section 9(a)), or change the coin or currency in which any Security or the interest thereon is payable, or adversely affect the right to redeem, pursuant to Section 3(d) hereof and subject to the limitations set forth therein, or convert any Security as herein provided pursuant to Section 4, or modify the provisions of the Securities with respect to subordination of the Securities in a manner adverse to the holders;

(iii) reduce the requirements of Section 10 hereof for quorum or voting, or reduce the percentage in principal amount of the outstanding Securities the consent of whose holders is required for any amendment or modification of the Fiscal Agency Agreement or the Terms and Conditions of the Securities or the consent of whose holders is required for any waiver (of compliance with certain provisions of the Fiscal Agency Agreement or the Securities or certain defaults hereunder and thereunder and their consequences) provided for in these Terms and Conditions;

(iv) change the obligation of the Company to maintain an office or agency in the City of New York and outside the United States; or

(v) modify any of the provisions of this Section except to increase any such percentage or to provide that certain other provisions of the Fiscal Agency Agreement or the Securities cannot be modified or waived without the consent of the holder of each outstanding Security affected thereby.

(c) No amendment, modification or waiver under this Section may make any change to Section 7 hereof that adversely affects the holders of any Senior Indebtedness of the Company then outstanding unless the holders of such Senior Indebtedness of the Company (required to give such consent pursuant to the terms of such Senior Indebtedness of the Company) consent to such change.

It shall not be necessary for any act of holders of Securities under this Section to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment, modification or waiver, but it shall be sufficient if such act shall approve the substance thereof. Any modifications, amendments or waivers to the Fiscal Agency Agreement or to these Terms and Conditions will be conclusive and binding on all holders of the Securities, whether or not they have given such consent or, were present at such meeting, and on all holders of coupons, whether or not notation of such modifications, amendments or waivers is made upon the Securities or coupons, and on all future holders of Securities and coupons. Any instrument given by or on behalf of any holder of a Security in connection with any consent to any such modification, amendment or waiver will be irrevocable once given and will be conclusive and binding on all subsequent holders of such Security.

10. Meetings and Votes of Holders.

(a) A meeting of holders of Securities may be called at any time and from time to time pursuant to this Section for any of the following purposes: (i) to give any notice to the Company or to the Fiscal Agent, or to give any directions to the Fiscal Agent, or to consent to the waiving of any default hereunder and its consequences, or to take any other action authorized to be taken by holders of Securities pursuant to these Terms and Conditions; or (ii) to take any other action authorized to be taken by or on behalf of the holders of any specified aggregate principal amount of the Securities under any other provision of the Fiscal Agency Agreement, under applicable law or under these Terms and Conditions.

(b) Meetings of holders of Securities may be held at such place or places in New York City or London as the Fiscal Agent or, in case of its failure to act, the Company or the holders calling the meeting shall from time to time determine.

The Fiscal Agent may at any time call a meeting of holders of the Securities to be held at such time and at such place in any of such designated locations as the Fiscal Agent shall determine. Notice of every meeting of holders shall be made as specified in the Fiscal Agency Agreement.

In case at any time the Company or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities outstanding shall have requested the Fiscal Agent to call a meeting of the holders, by written request setting forth in reasonable detail the action proposed to be taken at the meeting, and the Fiscal Agent shall not have given the first notice of such meeting within 21 days after receipt of such request or shall not thereafter proceed to cause the meeting to be held as provided herein, then the Company or the holders of Securities in the amount above specified may determine the time and the place in such designated locations for such meeting and may call such meeting to take any action authorized herein by giving notice thereof as provided in the Fiscal Agency Agreement.

(c) To be entitled to vote at any meeting of holders of Securities, a person shall be (i) a holder of one or more Securities, or (ii) a person appointed by an instrument in writing as proxy for a holder or holders of Securities by such holder or holders, which proxy need not be a holder of Securities. The only persons who shall be entitled to be present or to speak at any meeting of holders shall be the persons entitled to vote at such meeting and their counsel and any representatives of the Fiscal Agent and its counsel and any representatives of the Company and its counsel. The persons entitled to vote a majority in principal amount of the Securities shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business specified in Section 10(a) hereof. No business shall be transacted in the absence of a quorum unless a quorum is represented when the meeting is called to order. In the absence of a quorum within 30 minutes of the time appointed for any such meeting, the meeting shall, if convened at the request of the holders of Securities, be dissolved. In any other case the meeting shall be adjourned for a period of not less than 10 days as determined by the chairman of the meeting prior to the adjournment of such adjourned meeting. Notice of the reconvening of any adjourned meeting shall be given as provided in the Fiscal Agency Agreement. Subject to the foregoing, at the reconvening of any meeting adjourned for a lack of a quorum the persons entitled to vote 25% in principal amount of the Securities outstanding shall constitute a quorum for the taking of any action set forth in the notice of the original meeting. Notice of the reconvening of an adjourned meeting shall state expressly the percentage of the aggregate principal amount of the Securities that shall constitute a quorum. At a meeting or an adjourned meeting duly reconvened and at which a quorum is present as aforesaid, any resolution and all matters (except as limited by Section 9 of these Terms and Conditions) shall be effectively passed and decided if passed or decided by the persons entitled to vote a majority in principal amount of the Securities represented and voting at such meeting; provided, however, that such amount shall be not less than 25% in principal amount of the Securities outstanding. Any holder of a Security who has executed an instrument in writing appointing a person as his proxy shall be deemed to be present for the purposes of determining a quorum and be deemed to have voted; provided, however, that such holder shall be considered as present or voting only with respect to the matters covered by such instrument in writing. Any resolution effectively passed or decision taken at any meeting of the holders of Securities duly held in accordance with this Section 10 shall be binding on all the holders of Securities whether or not present or represented at the meeting.

(d) The Fiscal Agent may make such reasonable regulations as may deem advisable for any meeting of holders of Securities in regard to proof of the holding of Securities and of the appointment of proxies and in regard to the appointment and duties of inspectors of votes, the submission and examination of proxies, certificates and other evidence of the right to vote, and such other matters concerning the conduct of the meeting as it shall deem appropriate. Except as otherwise permitted or required by any such regulations, the holding of Bearer Securities shall be proved by the production of the Bearer Securities or by a certificate executed, as depositary, by, and the appointment of any proxy shall be proved by having the signature of the person executing the proxy witnessed or
