Apache Corporation Named a Top Workplace in San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 23, 2017 – Apache Corporation (NYSE: APA) (Nasdaq: APA) has been selected by the San Antonio Express-News as a 2017 Top Workplace. The selection was based on an engagement survey of employee feedback administered by WorkPlaceDynamics, LLC, which measures organizational health and workplace engagement. Apache has grown its regional presence to become part of the Alamo City community since opening an office in 2014 to deliver on a new oil and gas play in West Texas called Alpine High. Apache has created more than 200 jobs in San Antonio with plans for continued growth.

“We’ve always believed that our people are our greatest asset,” said Apache Chief Executive Officer and President John Christmann. “Receiving this honor underscores the level of talent and commitment that walks through our doors every day. Our San Antonio team will continue to grow as a valued partner and asset to the community.”
